F. D. R. Speeds Canadian Defense Plans

SEEKS QUICK ACTION FOR MUTUAL HELP

Sets Thursday Deadline For State, War and Navy Department Moves.

JOINT BOARD PROPOSED

President's Agreement With Dominion Premier Fixes New Alliance.

HYDE PARK, N. Y.—(U.P.)—President Roosevelt today called on the state, war and navy departments for quick action to implement the United States mutual defense agreement with Canada, and set Thursday as a deadline for such action.

In telephone conversations with departmental heads at Washington, Mr. Roosevelt made clear that he wants immediate action on establishment of a permanent Canadian-United States joint board on defense of North America.

Amounting virtually to a defense alliance with Canada, the new agreement served notice upon aggressor nations of the world that the United States never will permit conquest of its North American neighbor.

Under Mr. Roosevelt's speed-up order, it appeared that the four or five American members of the board will be named by Thursday, and may meet with the Canadian membership early next week.

It was considered probable Mr. Roosevelt would appoint Gen. George C. Marshall, army chief of staff, Admiral Harold R. Stark, chief of naval operations, Maj. Gen. H. H. Arnold, chief of the army air corps, and Rear Admiral John H. Towers, chief of the navy's bureau of aeronautics.

Mr. Roosevelt's orders were issued over a private telephone circuit which connects the summer White House here with the White House switchboard at Washington and through that board with the various governmental departments.

The new defense agreement was an integral development in the president's plan for protecting of the new world against aggression from overseas.

The agreement, reached by Mr.

Nazis Told Safety of Ship Expected By U. S.

Formal Note Sent Berlin As Nazis Disclaim Responsibility.

State Department Gives Warning Against Armed Action.

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON — Germany has been advised in a formal note that the United States expects her refugee-laden army transport American Legion to complete its voyage home from Petsamo, Finland, without "molestation" by Nazi armed forces.

As the transport with 900 Americans aboard neared waters which Nazis said were fraught with "extraordinary dangers," the state department last night disclosed that a formal note had been sent to Berlin, stating that the United States "expects that the vessel will not suffer molestation by any action undertaken by the German armed forces."

The German government Saturday disclaimed all responsibility for the ship's safety if it entered mine-infested waters near Britain, which are now specified as part of Germany's new "total blockade area."

The American note reminded the German government that it had been advised in advance of the course the ship would follow, and that the German government had stated that the transport did not require a safe conduct, since it was a U. S. army transport, and not a privately owned merchantman.

The American Legion's course, as originally set, was to take her between the British island of North Rona and Cape Wrath, off the northern coast of Scotland.

The state department's note said that the question of the ship's course was given "serious and protracted consideration" by the United States government, and that it had been determined that "no other practical course existed."

The note expressed the view "that the German government received sufficient advance notice... to take every precaution against attack on the vessel by the German combat forces."

Motor Company Head Dies After Illness of Two Years.

(By United Press)

GREAT NECK, N. Y.—The automobile industry mourned one of its Alger heroes today—Walter P. Chrysler who gave up a successful career in another field to become one of its "Big Three."

Chrysler, 65, chairman of the board of the Chrysler company and builder of one of New York City's three tallest skyscrapers, died of a cerebral hemorrhage at his estate here yesterday evening. He had been ill for two years.

Funeral services will be held at 11 a. m. Wednesday at St. Bartholomew's church in New York and he will be buried at Tarrytown, N. Y.

In 1920 Chrysler took over the Willys-Overland company, a few months later took on, in addition, the work of re-organizing the

BULLETIN

WOOSTER —(AP)— Week-end traffic accidents caused the death today of William Davis, 64, of Ft. Wayne, Ind., and Earl Severns, 40, of Wooster.

Three women were injured, one seriously, in two Sunday traffic accidents in Richland county while five other persons were hurt in a series of mishaps in adjoining counties. At least 10 persons died in Ohio traffic over the week-end.

Mrs. Hilda Beggs, 33, of La-Grange, Ill., suffered a possible fracture of the pelvis and fractures of several ribs at 3:20 p. m. Sunday when a car driven by her husband, H. L. Beggs, skidded off route 30N one mile west of Mansfield. She is in General hospital. Beggs and their son, James, were not hurt.

When cars driven by Owen Ruhl, 24, of R. D. 2, Bellville, and Stanley E. Webster, 30, Columbus, collided Sunday night on route 42 two miles south of Lexington, two Columbus women were injured.

Juanita Webster, 27, received cuts on her head and Elizabeth McCarthy, 62, suffered injuries on her left leg and abdomen. They were treated by a Lexington physician. Both were riding with Webster.

Three persons were hurt at Willard, two of them when a car driven by Mrs. Ethel Smith of Tiffin skidded off the edge of route 61 four miles northeast of the city and struck an embankment. Hurt in the mishap were Mrs. A. C. Byrer, 55, of Willard, sister of Mrs. Smith, and George W. Hoffman, 75, also of Willard. Both are in Willard Municipal hospital. They suffered bruises.

Injured in an accident on Tiffin street in Willard was Marvin

Island Set for Death Struggle Against Hitler

All Britain Made Defense Area as Zero Hour For Invasion by Nazis Looms; Thundering Air Attack Made On German Strongholds

(By Associated Press)

LONDON—All of Britain was made a defense area today as the nation, already fighting in history's greatest air battle, got set for a life-or-death struggle to defend its soil.

With the Germans apparently nearing the zero hour for their attempt to smash Britain into submission by direct invasion, the British launched a thundering attack against the Nazi-held French coast and claimed their air fighters were parrying Nazi air blows with an increasingly favorable advantage.

The order to make the isles a defense area—subject at a moment's notice to drastic edicts by closely cooperating civil and military authorities—was issued as a "precautionary measure" by the ministry of home security.

Regional commissioners for England, Wales and Scotland will have authority, it said, "subject to control and direction of the ministry of home security, to issue directions or orders required for the purposes of defense within their respective areas."

Although there were no immediate new restrictions on Britons, the new order authorized "any measures which might become urgently necessary through enemy landing by air or sea to be introduced without delay in any part of the country in which they are required."

Until now, only a 20-mile strip of the eastern and southern coasts from the Scottish border to Portland had been a defense area.

Again today, bomber traffic over the English channel was two-way after a Sunday exchange of raids in which both sides pounded at sources of enemy strength.

Apparently attempting to destroy or immobilize Britain's air force, waves of Nazi planes struck at strategically-placed airdromes, twice causing Sunday air raid alarms in London.

But, the British declared, the Nazis achieved little success at great cost, losing planes at a rate of more than nine to one of Britain's.

One German bomber was said to have been shot down this morning in the southwest.

A house was demolished and two persons were trapped in the wreckage in a southeast coast town when a lone German raiding plane made the first foray of the day on Britain.

Squadrons of British warplanes, aiming at the likeliest jumping-off place for any attempted invasion of England, loosed such a heavy cargo of bombs over Calais and Boulogne and the channel coast in between that the flare of explosions early today lighted the streets of Dover, more than 20 miles away.

(British night raiders were reported in Basel, Switzerland, also to have scored hits on one of Germany's biggest aluminum factories just across the Rhine river from the Swiss town of Rheinfelden...

(Other Swiss reports said British raiders had struck, too, at German armament plants along Lake Constance, including the Zeppelin works at Friedrichshafen.

(The Italian high command acknowledged new British attacks on Milan, Turin and Cuneo, but minimized their effectiveness.)

It was announced, meanwhile,

City Escapes Storm But 3 In Ohio Are Killed By Bolts

Storms which swept across Ohio Sunday afternoon left only minor damage in the Mansfield area, but lightning killed three persons in Cleveland and injured at least six others.

The wind, rain, and lightning brought relief from a week-old heat wave and ended a prolonged drought in widespread sections of the state.

In Mansfield, the temperature dropped from a high of 90 degrees Sunday to 58 last night, a drop of 48 degrees. Rainfall here, however, was not heavy enough to be of much help to crops or to replenish dwindling rural water supplies.

Lightning struck a tree in Cleveland's southwest side, spreading death and injury to a group of boys and girls who had taken shelter under it. The charge killed Betty Jean Eiserlo, 18, and Kenneth W. Clark, jr., 15. The injured were Betty Jean's sister, Shirley, 14; Ralph Gill, 15; Ralph L. Sivalls, jr., 13; John Ehrman, jr., 16; his sister, Elsie, 14, and Donald Wolschlegel, four.

In suburban Garfield Heights at Cleveland, lightning struck through a window of a summer cottage, fatally injuring Louis F. Miller, 31. He died in a hospital two hours later.

With the storm centering along the lake, the Cleveland coast guard rescued 12 persons after their boats capsized. Ten boats were helped to shore when the storm stirred up big waves on the lake. Five of the 12 persons who were rescued were sailors from a Norwegian steamer who were taking a "busman's holiday" in a small rowboat which sank outside the breakwall at Cleveland.

Damage in Richland county was limited to minor disruptions in telephone service from falling tree branches. LeRoy Wittemire, manager of the Mansfield Telephone company, said a few "outages" were reported near Shiloh in the northern part of the county because of limbs across the lines.

A tree was blown across the Koogle-Harlan road in Mifflin township. Clyde Moore, county road maintenance superintendent, said. It was removed a short time later and did not hold up traffic.

Lightning struck a chimney on the Park Rush residence in Loudonville, causing only minor damage. Despite a brilliant display of lightning, no damage from lightning was reported in Richland county.

PRESSURE: Nazis Indicate Final Blow Being Prepared

(By Associated Press)

BERLIN—Germany multiplied indications today that the final pressure is about to be applied in an attempt to make Britain sue for peace, just as France was forced to sue, as telling new blows in the aerial war were reported by the high command.

Through Swiss diplomatic channels, Adolf Hitler warned the British to treat his parachute troops according to the international laws applying to other troops or he would visit reprisals upon British aviators held prisoner.

Aside from this implication Germany may be about to attempt the landing of men to hold vital land objectives in Britain, authorized spokesmen declared:

"Just give us three days of good weather," intimating that the German military is convinced the air war rapidly is achieving its purpose of "softening up" the British and that the crucial week may be at hand.

German troops were reported at French channel ports, impatiently waiting for the air force to do its work.

Thousands of German aviators were said to be held in reserve in scores of airports in France, Belgium and Holland to launch a supreme air wave at the British.

Describing the blows dealt by the air force, which Germans believed is rapidly paving the way for a Nazi peace over London by September, the German high command said 121 British planes were shot down in battles Sunday.

Declaring many airports had been attacked in Britain's "hot"

Newspaper Owned By Knox Supports Wendell Willkie

CHICAGO —(U.P.)— The Chicago Daily News, of which Secretary of the Navy Frank Knox is principal stockholder, declared itself in a front page editorial today in favor of the election of Wendell L. Willkie, Republican presidential nominee.

The editorial called Willkie's acceptance speech at Elwood, Ind., Saturday "courageous and forthright" and concluded:

"On the basis of this great speech, and always reserving the right to change our mind in the unlikely event that he later wavers or weakens in the vital concerns of foreign policy and national defense, the Daily News believes that Wendell Willkie should be chosen as the next president of the United States."

The News last week dropped Knox's name from its editorial page masthead as "editor and publisher" after he notified the board of directors that his cabinet duties would not permit time to serve in that capacity.

Senators Approve Measure To Evacuate Children.

WASHINGTON—(U.P.)—The senate today approved a bill amending the neutrality act to permit unarmed American vessels to enter combat zones to assist in evacuating refugee children.

Under the bill, which now goes back to the house for concurrence in minor senate amendments, American ships may enter belligerent waters to evacuate children under 16 years of age, provided their support in this country has been guaranteed by American organizations or individuals.

They must also have from European belligerents a guarantee of "safe conduct."

One of the senate amendments stipulated that the guarantees of support of the refugee children must be made before the mercy vessels take them from ports of debarkation.

Boy, 9, Killed in 300-Foot Plunge At Mohican Park

LOUDONVILLE — A 300-foot plunge down the side of the steep gorge of the Clearfork creek in Mohican State park near here brought instant death Sunday to Paul Allen Snead, 9, of Akron.

Young Snead and another lad, on a picnic at the park with a number of Akron families, tried to scale the precipice near the suspension foot-bridge that spans the creek. The boy lost his hold and fell 300 feet to the bottom of the gorge.

Clayton Sellers, Loudonville, was the first to reach the boy's body. His father, L. W. Snead, an Akron city fireman, was summoned.

The boy suffered a broken neck, crushed skull, hip and ankle. His body was removed to Akron later in the day.

PLEADS TODAY

Accused Stabber Due to Face Court This Afternoon.

Albert Davis, 35, colored, accused of fatally stabbing Mrs. Lena Morton, colored, in her room on North Mulberry street several weeks ago, was scheduled to go before Common Pleas Judge C. H. Huston this afternoon to plead guilty to a second-degree murder charge.

Atty. C. F. Creedman, appointed by the court to defend Davis, said he would plead Davis guilty if the charge is reduced to second-degree murder; Prosecutor G. W. Marriott previously agreed to accept a guilty plea to the lesser charge.

Davis was indicted on a first-degree count Aug. 1 by the county grand jury and two days later pleaded innocent when arraigned before Judge Huston.

JAM OFFICE TO BEAT DEADLINE

Taxpayers Throng to Courthouse As Last Day Nears.

With only one more day remaining to pay real estate taxes without penalty, property owners thronged the county treasurer's office again today to beat the deadline.

Receipts were expected to pass the half-million mark by tonight. Collections totaling $15,756 Saturday boosted the total so far to $480,083. Tax books will close Tuesday night.

Saturday was the busiest day at Treasurer John E. Kolb's office since the collection period began six weeks ago, although receipts were under the Friday figure. Payment of smaller accounts Saturday accounted for the difference, employees at the office said.

CABINET CHOICE

F. D. R. Picks Indiana Farmer to Succeed Wallace.

WASHINGTON —(AP)— Claude R. Wickard, Indiana farmer, was nominated by President Roosevelt today to succeed Henry A. Wallace, the Democratic vice-presidential nominee, as secretary of agriculture.

Since last winter, Wickard has been undersecretary of agriculture.

Wallace's resignation, effective Sept. 5, was announced in exchange of letters, released today at Hyde Park, N. Y.

Stephen Early, presidential secretary, said Wickard was promoted because of President Roosevelt's desire to have the agriculture department directed by someone from within its own organization.

Hitch-Hikes From California To Finish Out Term At O. S. R.

Five fugitives from the Ohio State reformatory were back behind bars at the institution today with additional time to serve as penalty for their escapes.

One, who returned of his own volition yesterday will have less added time than the other four, who were returned by officers from Wisconsin.

Russell Melling, 30, of Darke county, surrendered voluntarily yesterday after more than four years of freedom. He told Supt. Arthur L. Glattke when he walked into his office that he had hiked from California to serve out a one to 15-year burglary term.

Melling walked away from the Osborne honor camp, Erie county, in July, 1936, after serving less than a year of his sentence.

Charles Phoenix, 24, of Montgomery county, was returned by Milwaukee, Wis., officers who had picked him up in that city. He fled from the farm dormitory June 4 after serving two years of a 10 to 25-year sentence for robbery.

Three others returned from Madison, Wis., where they were apprehended last week were Mike Maloney, 23, Allen county; Leroy Bean, 22, Franklin county, and Ralph Monk, 25, Athens county.

The trio escaped from the Sandusky honor camp early this month.

Phoenix was serving a sentence for robbery, Maloney a one to 15-year term for burglary and Bean a burglary and grand larceny term.

LEAVING: British Reported Evacuating Somaliland Port

(By International News Service)

BULLETIN

LONDON — (UP) — The war office tonight announced that British forces have evacuated British Somaliland. The war office announced that the evacuation was accomplished with the aid of British naval forces.

ROME — British troops are beginning to evacuate the British Somaliland capital of Berbera under the hammer blows of Italian aviation and ground forces, authoritative Italian quarters claimed today.

Official quarters stated:

"We have definite information that the English are beginning to embark troops from Berbera.

"The situation greatly resembles the English evacuation from Dunkerque in France."

This statement was made in Rome a few minutes after an Italian military bulletin announced that Italian troops have captured and advanced beyond LaFaruk, south of Berbera, and are pursuing British forces toward the coast.

"Since Zeila (already held by the Italians) and Berbera are the only two ports on the whole British Somaliland coast," Italian authorities declared, "we are having at Berbera a repetition of what happened at Dunkerque.

"Bitter rearguard actions are going on near Berbera and we expect these will be finished tomorrow. There is little resistance elsewhere.

"Whereas the British are using splendid Rhodesian and Indian native troops, we are trusting the

Willkie Awaits Roosevelt Reply to Debate Challenge

PLANS SPEECH AT SCHOOL HE ONCE TAUGHT

Campaign Program to Take Nominee Through West and Coast States.

(By United Press)

RUSHVILLE, Ind.—Wendell L. Willkie inspects his five Indiana farms today while he waits a reply from President Roosevelt to his challenge that the two presidential candidates debate face-to-face the issues of the campaign.

He announced that unless Mr. Roosevelt accepts the challenge he offered in his speech Saturday accepting the Republican presidential nomination he would not begin his formal campaign until mid-September.

Then he will travel to Coffeyville, Kans., where he once taught history in high school, to deliver his first campaign speech.

Plans for the campaign were made yesterday with Rep. Joseph W. Martin, house minority leader and Republican national chairman. Some time this week Willkie will leave for a vacation in Minnesota or Maine and then spend two or three days at New York City before opening the campaign at Coffeyville. From Kansas he will swing through the northwest and down the Pacific coast.

Tonight Willkie probably will listen to the New Deal's reply to his Elwood, Ind., acceptance speech, a radio address by Secretary of the Interior Harold L. Ickes. He already had delegated Sen. H. Styles Bridges of New Hampshire to deliver the Republican rebuttal to Ickes' speech.

He said that he was pleased with the nation's reaction to the acceptance speech in which he endorsed conscription of man power and material aid to Great Britain as national defense measures and attacked Mr. Roosevelt's administration of domestic and foreign affairs.

The Elwood speech was regarded as a new Republican party platform to take precedence over the document which was adopted by the Philadelphia convention which nominated Willkie. In it he made a slashing attack on Mr. Roosevelt's domestic and foreign policies and suggested that the president may have been "deliberately inciting us to war." He charged that the administration had failed to employ discretion in its conduct of those affairs.

Although Willkie endorsed many of the objectives of the New Deal, he charged the Roosevelt administration with mis-management of domestic issues and accused Mr. Roosevelt of employing political persecution through taxes, inciting class against class and distributing poverty instead of the more abundant life among the people.

"Some form of selective service is the only democratic way in which to secure the trained and competent man power we need for national defense," he said.

Wallace Sent Out On Stump to Win Agriculture Vote

HYDE PARK, N. Y.—(NS)—Momentarily ignoring Wendell Willkie's challenge to a series of face-to-face debates, President Roosevelt today accepted the resignation of Henry A. Wallace as secretary of agriculture, effective Sept. 5, and sent his 1940 running mate out on the stump to capture the farm vote.

The president outlined his campaign approach to the agricultural problem as he returned to his Hudson valley home after a week-end of conferences at the border with Canadian Prime Minister W. L. MacKenzie King which resulted on agreement on a positive defense alliance between the United States and the British dominion.

The president lashed out vigorously at Republican efforts since the World war to aid the farmer in his letter releasing Wallace from the cabinet. The Democratic vice presidential nominee is formally accepting his designation on the ticket at Des Moines on Aug 29. Mr. Roosevelt's letter accepting his cabinet resignation virtually outlined the speech Wallace will make on that date.

MRS. GARVER OF ASHLAND DEAD

Active Worker in Democratic Party Stricken Sunday; Rites Tuesday.

ASHLAND — Mrs. Charles W. Garver, 63, prominent in state Democratic organizations and Ashland county political groups, died at her home, 258 West Main street, at 10:30 a. m. Sunday. Death was caused by a cerebral hemorrhage, following an illness of one day.

One of the most active women in Democratic affairs, she served as vice chairman of the Ashland County Democratic organization, and later social chairman of women's organizations. She was state secretary of the first Democratic women's group, and state chairman of the organization of the 17th district. Other political appointments included state director of the blind commission of Ohio for a six year period and state representative for the aid of the aged division for five years.

During the World war she conducted a business training opportunity school. An active member of the First Presbyterian church, she belonged to the Volunteer Sunday school class; a charter member of the Business and Professional Women's club of Ashland and served as president for two terms. Her membership also included the Flower Gardeners club of which she was a president; Women's Relief Corps and other social clubs.

Surviving are her husband; a brother, John of Ashland; three sisters, Mrs. Carrie Outward of Ashland, Miss Josephine Alsdorf of Ashland, and Mrs. Amy Hyde of Sullivan. A daughter, Gladys, died at the age of 16 years.

Funeral services will be held Tuesday at 2:30 p. m. at the First Presbyterian church in charge of Rev. H. E. Andrews. Burial will be in the Ashland cemetery.

Young men interested in enlisting or desiring information about the army are requested to see the sergeant in charge at the postoffice building, between the hours of 8 and 11, on that day.

To be eligible for enlistment, applicants must be at least 18 and under 35 years of age; citizens of the United States, single and without dependents; or good character and able to pass the physical requirements.

RITES WEDNESDAY

Funeral services for Mrs. Elsie Christiansen, 39, of Woodville road, wife of Ejner Christiansen, a former Milwaukee, Wis., resident, who died at the home Saturday, will be held at 1:30 p. m. Wednesday at the Wappner funeral home in charge of Rev. E. G. Corwin of the First Methodist church. Burial will be in Mansfield cemetery.

MARINE LEAGUE URGES STANDARD SET-UP FOR CIVILIAN DEFENSE

Eugene Walter and J. M. Buchanan, Mansfield delegates to the national convention of the Marine Corps league at Detroit, returned today, reporting that the league had gone on record favoring the creation of standard civilian defense councils throughout the nation.

Walter is adjutant and paymaster of the Mansfield unit of the league and Buchanan is commandant of the department of Ohio. The convention, held at the Book-Cadillac hotel, opened Wednesday and closed Saturday.

The resolution as adopted by the convention proposed that police, firemen, Red Cross workers, World war veterans, professional men, civic leaders and aviation experts be assigned specific tasks, and that an executive group, composed of one member from each of the foregoing be set up to direct activities.

President Roosevelt and all congressmen were to be informed of the league's proposal.

The corps also went on record as favoring a change in marine corps enlistment regulations, to permit recruits to enroll for periods of one, two, three or four years, instead of for the four-year period now mandatory. It also recommended raising the base pay to $30 a month.

The corps also urged the adoption of the Johnson semi-automatic rifle as standard military equipment. Its inventor is a former marine.

Edward M. Warne, 67, of 479 South Diamond street, who operated a grocery store for the past 22 years, died at his home Sunday after lingering illness. He was born in Mansfield Oct. 28, 1872.

Mr. Warne, before opening his grocery had been employed at the Roderick-Lean company. He was a member of the First Lutheran church and the Modern Woodmen of America lodge.

Surviving are his wife, Catherine; two daughters, Mrs. Rhea Williams of Mansfield, and Mrs. Elverda Cox of Ganges; his mother, Mrs. Ellen Warne of Mansfield; four brothers, Albert, Fred and Harry of Mansfield and Clarence of Dayton; a sister, Mrs. Frances Hower of Mansfield and four grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 3:30 p. m. Wednesday at the home with Rev. O. S. Goerner, assistant pastor of the First Lutheran church, officiating. Burial will be in Mansfield cemetery.

STRICKEN AT 42

Services for Luke Johnson To Be Held Tuesday.

Luke Johnson, 42, 213 North Diamond street, died Saturday evening at the Mansfield General hospital, following a brief illness. He was born in Roanoke, Va., in August, 1898, and came to Mansfield 13 years ago.

His wife preceded him in death eight years ago.

Friends may call at the Geiger Funeral home where services will be held Tuesday at 2 p. m. in charge of Rev. A. J. McCrary of the Mt. Calvary Baptist church. Burial will be in the Mansfield cemetery.

URGES AID TO BRITAIN AND CONSCRIPTION

Predicts Nazi Attack Upon America in Event of British Defeat.

(By Associated Press)

PHILADELPHIA—U. S. Ambassador to France William C. Bullitt bluntly predicted a German attack on the United States if Great Britain is defeated as he urged the nation last night to adopt conscription and send aid to the British fleet.

His address, broadcast from historic Independence Square, was released through the state department, indicating it had full administration approval.

"America is in danger," he said gravely.

"It is my conviction, drawn from my own experience and from the information in the hands of our government in Washington, that the United States is in as great peril today as was France a year ago. And I believe that unless we act now, decisively, to meet the threat we shall be too late."

At one point he asked the 4,000 persons in front of the shrine, "Do you want to see Hitler in Independence Hall making fun of the Liberty Bell?

"No!" he shouted, and the crowd shouted with him.

"Write and telegraph to your senators and representatives," he urged. "Write to your newspaper. Demand the privilege of being called into the service of the nation. Tell them that we want conscription. Tell them that we back up Gen. Pershing."

(Gen. Pershing, commander of the American Expeditionary Force in the last war, advocated in Washington, Aug. 4, that "at least 50" destroyers left over from the World war be made available to the British.)

Bullitt, the first high ranking member of the administration to advocate naval aid, declared that "the destruction of the British navy would be the turning of our Atlantic Maginot line."

"Without the British navy," he asserted, "the Atlantic would give us no more protection than the Maginot line gave France after the German troops had marched through Belgium."

Warning against unpreparedness, the envoy said:

"The men and women who tell you that the dictators will not attack the western hemisphere may be honest, wishful thinkers or they may be agents of the dictators; but in either case, by lulling you into a false security and retarding your preparedness for defense, they are keeping the way clear for an assault on America by the dictators. They are enemies, consciously or unconsciously, of our country and our liberties."

DISEASE PERIL

Typhoid Feared Among Flood Refugees in South.

ROANOKE RAPIDS, N. C.—(AP)—Floods left thousands homeless and at least two dead in northeastern North Carolina today, while fire and threat of disease added to woes of the stricken area. Whole sections were isolated.

At Jackson, 25 miles east of here, 400 flood refugees were advised by health officials to take vaccinations against typhoid. In nearby Weldon about 600 were homeless while the Roanoke river reached the all-time crest of 58 feet.

A large plant of the Halifax paper corporation at Roanoke Rapids burst into flames yesterday afternoon and firemen, unable to use their regular equipment, fought the flames from boats.

PLEASE EXCUSE IT, MR. WILLKIE

News-Journal Text Error Changes Speech Meaning.

In the text of Wendell Willkie's acceptance speech, carried in Sunday's News-Journal, the omission of one line changed the entire meaning of one of Willkie's statements.

The text, as printed, read "The New Deal stands for doing what has to be done by spending as little money as possible."

What Mr. Willkie said was "The New Deal stands for doing what has to be done by spending as much money as possible. I propose to do it by spending as little money as possible."

BRICKER SPEAKS

CLEVELAND (AP)—"Persecution of minorities can never be in our land" so long as the constitution stands, Gov. John W. Bricker told a Hungarian group in an address yesterday, before leaving for a Detroit convention.

The Voice of BROADWAY

—By DOROTHY KILGALLEN

Speaking For Myself.

Those new taxicabs with the gay striped awnings somehow make me think of Paris, the way sidewalk cafes always do. . . . I loathe radio comedians who try to make a bad gag sound like a good gag by telling the audience it's a bad gag. . . . John Barrymore may be "The Great Profile" but Charles Boyer is my idea of "The Great Full Face" . . .

I can't understand why a girl named Hollace Shaw, who has an unusually beautiful soprano voice, doesn't go places on Broadway.

I saw her first in "Very Warm For May," in which they let her sing one chorus—then, away she went. Now, in "Higher and Higher" she sings one line. Yet she has a beautiful face, lovely blond hair, and a figure that's competition for any of the show girls. Unless she can't talk, she should be a star some day . . .

Burning leaves make me think of walking home from grammar school on a late September afternoon.

* * *

I wonder why some humorous sculptor doesn't create Fifth avenue window mannequins with a sly flirting smile and a come-hither gleam in their eyes, instead of that ultra-snobbish glare the current dummies so tirelessly maintain . . .

It annoys me that my typewriter has no exclamation point, and every time I want to write one, I have to manufacture it.

There are three girls in the movies who look alike and are always cast in similar parts, so that I never know until the picture is half over whether that actress is Katherine Alexander, Barbara O'Neill, or Frieda Inescort.

If I were the underground Emily Post I wouldn't insist that men get up and give their seats to young women. Old ladies, mothers and children, yes—but I'm convinced a tired working man can be just as tired as a working girl at 5:15 p. m., and while I think it's a terribly nice gesture if a lad relinquishes his place to a lady, I don't think it's a social obligation. . . .

I prefer Lucy Monroe singing "The Star Spangled Banner" to Kate Smith singing "God Bless America." . . .

It's funny that some men instinctively know how to combine suit, shirt and tie so that the ensemble looks as if it had been laid out by a valet with a quietly artistic sense, and other men look as if they'd assembled their attire in a dark and unfamiliar room.

The three men who come to my mind as being always subtly color-schemed are Douglas Fairbanks, jr., Herschel Williams, and William Rhinelander Stewart.

* * *

It's around this time of the year that sun-tans get very boring to the eye. . . . I've never met a cab driver who wouldn't get into a violent argument at the drop of a fender. . . . I guess the dullest day of the year is the Monday after vacation. . . .

The sidestreets off Broadway look so dark and haunted these nights, with no plays in the theaters, no lights on the marquees. . . . I've never worn pigtails, but I think most little girls look cute in them. Quaint and Kate Wigginsish.

* * *

Spivy's Roof is the only place I've ever seen where the guest stars who just dropped in get called on unexpectedly—and turn out to have their accompanists with them! . . . I guess the violin is my favorite instrument, but don't give it to me in a swing band, boys. . . .

One of the things I love about this town is the distant roar of the Stratoliner every evening at 9:45 as it speeds over the skyscrapers toward the coast. It's exciting motor-roar seems to hum, "You're living in 1940, don't make any mistake about it." . . .

Funny how riding in a horse-drawn carriage in Central Park at midnight makes you feel romantic, but the same thing at noon just makes you feel very dignified. . . .

I can't imagine anything more breath-taking than that $75,000 dress made of real pearls, which the Imperial Pearl Syndicate has had whipped up. It sounds like something made for Cinderella.

I think people who insist in staying put in a theater when you try to get past them deserve the barked shins they almost invariably get. . . .

* * *

I loved Errol Flynn's swashbuckling in "The Sea Hawk." He and Brian Aherne can wear costumes better than anyone. . . . I giggled when I heard of Captain Eugene La Barre's new invention, but the more I think of it the more it solves one of my biggest problems. Capt. LaBarre, who conducts the N. Y. Police Department and World's Fair bands, has patented a boon to humanity: an automatic telephone-receiver - holder - upper-to-your-ear, which means you can telephone while you write, eat a sandwich and malted, or play poker with the boys. . . .

I wish the weather would hurry up and get cold so I could wear a new black dress and black hat and long black gloves. I'm fed up with prints. . . . I wonder if it is true that the other evening Tommy Manville walked into the Beachcomber with three blondes and Monte Proser refused admittance to one of the babes with the ruling: "Sorry. Only two to a customer!"

Just jottings about people you know, as they're seen here and there about town:

Mrs. Helen Young busy lining up a floor show for the junior high school dance Thursday night. . . . Plumber Wade Stanfield and the missus back from a family reunion in southern Ohio where they found some new relatives. . . .

Bob Hayes, who really likes Canada and its fishing, getting ready to leave this week for his second trip there this summer. . . . Speaking of fishing, Gray and Bernice Adkins did a little of that Sunday along Lake Erie. . . . Merle Pecht says these fishing trips to Canada are O. K., but the next time he'll go with less luggage and equipment. . . . Lorene Haas observing her 16th birthday. . . . Ed Falkin back on the job after his vacation. . . .

Mayer Collects Sub-Par 68 In Winning Golf Match

Zeides Defeats Linster In 1st Round Match

Rollie Rachel Beaten By Mayers; Zediker Wins At Coolridge; Moorhead Triumphs.

JOE MAYER, defending champion, and one of the top-ranking amateur shotmakers in this district, smashed out a scorching four-under-par 68 yesterday to advance in the annual Possum Run golf championship tournament.

With his drives and approaches working to perfection, Mayer toured the course in easy fashion to defeat Rollie Rachel, 4 and 3. Mayer forged ahead on the first nine and never trailed.

One of the major upsets in the tournament was scored yesterday when Pete Zeides defeated the highly favored Pete Linster, runner-up in last year's tournament, two and one. Zeides scored a 71 and Linster a 72.

In the other matches in the opening round John Carr won out over Tony Lake, one up. Carl Wiseman defeated Ray Oak three and two. Ted Etzel took Jim Stout one up. Grant Hanniwald was victorious over Lawrence Deley, three and two, and Carl Kushin took Frank Cipris and A. Kushin took over Nick Linster both one up.

* * *

Bobby Moorhead moved another notch nearer his second straight Westbrook country club golf championship by eliminating W. H. Thompson in second-round match at the club yesterday.

Moorhead, a favorite to cop the title, chalked up a 4 and 3 triumph over Thompson.

In other first round matches, E. E. Hoovler beat Dr. P. A. Stoodt, 3 and 2; H. P. Hosler turned back Paul Auxter, one up on the 19th; Dr. Art Sprecker defeated E. A. Eisely, 3 and 2; Bill Black jr., stopped Paul Stephens, 3 and 2; Jim Hoffman eliminated W. O. Critchfield, 4 and 3; Judge G. E. Kalbfleisch advanced over M. M. Feeman, 2 up and B. B. Drummond downed H. H. Shaw, 3 and 2.

Gene Zediker took the role of a favorite today in the Coolidge Country club golf championship tourney following his impressive 6 and 5 win over Tony Schadek in a first round match yesterday.

John Jocha beat Roy Rachel, 2 up. Frank Jocha stopped Pete Zimmerman, one up on the 20th hole. Joe Kasper won over Nick Loris, 2 and 1. Steve Stutzinger defeated Phil Premy, 6 and 5. Carl Rancinger topped Harold Beer, 1 and 2. Vin Malaska scored a 3 and 2 win over George Zimmerman and Red Keck halted George Sferro, 4 and 3.

Thelma Linster Drops Out of Possum Tourney.

A familiar figure was missing from the annual women's golf tournament which got under way yesterday at the Possum Run golf course.

She was Thelma Linster, winner of the tournament for the past three years, who withdrew yesterday from this year's tournament due to lack of competition. Mrs. Linster won the state women's public links championship played recently at Akron.

Four matches were played in the opening round of the women's tournament at Possum Run yesterday. Mrs. Fay Stirone won over Mrs. Ray Beal two and one. Harriet Roth defeated Mrs. Harry Schlegel one up. Mrs. V. H. Oberlander bowed to Mrs. A. Kushin two and one, and Mrs. Flo Adams beat Mrs. Ed Eichen one up.

Herman-Lorain District Softball Title Called.

The Sons of Herman will wait until 8:30 p. m. Tuesday to see whether they will represent this district in the state softball tournament. Scheduled to clash with the Lorain American Legion in the district finals at Elyria last night, the game was called off because of rain. Manager Frank Beeber's club, the defending champions, will have Jim Fullager available for mound duty Tuesday night.

Mansfielders Advance In Softball Meet

Merchant Girls Trip Grafton In Semi-Final Setto.

TWELVE Mansfield girls today had one thought in mind—to win the state girls' softball tournament championship.

* * *

The girls make up the Mansfield Merchants softball team and they advanced to the finals by handing the Grafton Merchants a 4 to 2 beating in a semi-final tussle at Toledo yesterday.

* * *

With the score deadlocked at 2-all in the sixth frame the Merchants pounded over two markers to forge ahead and win the contest. Mansfield was to meet the Elyria Bittners in the finals last night, but rain forced postponement of the game.

When the finals will be played is not known today. Daugherty, manager of the team, said early today that the district softball commissioner would select either Toledo or Massillon as the site for the championship game. It marks the first time a Mansfield girls' team has reached the finals of a state tourney.

The Merchants had Helen Sturgeon and Florence Bittinger to thank for yesterday's triumph.

* * *

Helen tripled and came home on Bittinger's single in the sixth to break the 2-all tie. Frances Clark was on the hill for the winners and set the Grafton team down with three hits.

* * *

Both teams scored a run in the first inning and each added a marker in the fourth. The Mansfielders collected eight hits and committed two errors. A box score of the game was not available.

SPORTS PARADE

By HENRY M'LEMORE

NEW YORK—(U.P.)—Putting the sport shot here and there. Patience is its own reward. I picked Bimelech to win the Kentucky Derby and he lost. I also named Bimelech as the greatest horse since Man o'War and now he won't even finish out the season, proving that the kiss of death is potent as ever.

* * *

Now that the Bradley colt has bid farewell, the turf world will never know just how he might have run if a new jockey had been on his back. Just two weeks ago Basil James was to have ridden him—in place of Freddie Smith—in the American derby but the track came up mud.

* * *

Saturday Don Meade was supposed to have the mount in the Travers, but again Bimmie was scratched. If he doesn't come back—and if you remember Lawrin, Dauber, War Admiral, Stagehand and many another you know they very seldom do come back—the argument of whether he was a poor horse or Smith a poor jock never will be settled.

It is strange that in this country we have only two great champions, and that one is famed to almost the same extent that the other is ignored. The first is Joe Louis, and I need not introduce him. The second is Alice Marble, and for all the notice she gets she might be a clerk behind a perfume counter instead of perhaps the greatest woman tennis player any of us ever has seen. . . Apparently she is so much better than the opponents that it won't be news until she is defeated.

* * *

In Louis' case the law of supply and demand might just as well be repealed . . . Joe is in great demand of opponents, but there is no supply whatsoever. . . . If he accepts a proposed offer to tour South America, he will be the first heavyweight champion ever to venture below the equator on this hemisphere . . . certainly, the gauchos couldn't have waited for a more efficient man to come along . . . If you pride yourself on your skill as an amateur magician, think of Jimmy Dykes.

* * *

The Chicago White Sox manager hasn't spent more than a dime for a ballplayer since Connie Mack first donned his celluloid collar, yet the Sox continue firm in their position as the No. 1 troublemakers of the American League. . . Just what keeps them in the first division, I don't know, but if Dykes isn't using mirrors he must know all the rites of witchcraft or hypnotism . . . or both . . .

Hard-Luck Players Meet in Net Finals

Braves Divide Games With Fostoria Team

THE Mansfield Braves divided a double header out at the Fairground yesterday before one of the smallest Sunday crowds of the year.

* * *

With approximately 300 spectators looking on, Mansfield copped the opener, 5 to 3, but dropped the nightcap by a 4 to 3 count.

* * *

Bob Snider worked on the mound in the first Ohio State league contest and scattered 11 hits. He was effective in the pinches and the Red Birds couldn't score more than a run in any inning.

Mansfield plays in Fremont today and George Lauria or Bob Arnold will be Manager Dewey Stovers choice to toe the rubber. The Braves return to the Fair park Tuesday to meet Fremont before a Mansfield Braves directors appreciation crowd at 8:30 p. m.

The Braves came from behind to annex the initial affray yesterday, but blew an early lead in losing the second melee. Charles Byers worked on the hill in the nightcap and, although he only gave up three hits they were timely.

Fostoria piled up a 2 to 0 advantage in the third inning of the opener but the Braves knotted the score in the fourth. Mansfield was leading by a 3-2 count in the seventh and the Red Birds with Gene Woodling pacing the attack the Braves scored twice in the eighth to again take the lead and win the setto.

The Braves were leading 3 to 1, as the teams went into the third frame of the seventh-inning night cap. Fostoria collected two runs to tie the score and then added what proved to be their winning run in the next chapter.

* * *

After scoring three times in the first stanza, the Braves were held scoreless by Osborne. Mansfield secured eight hits, but was unable to produce the bingles with runners on the bases.

* * *

Woodling pounded out a home run double and single in the first tussle, while Herb Woodden, Hal Hundemer and Howard Beals had two bingles apiece in the second tilt. Manager Bob Jones hit a four bagger in the opener, while Perrone pounded out a circuit clout in the second for the Red Birds.

Joe C. Hartline, president of the Mansfield Braves announced today that the admission price for the rest of the season will be reduced. Starting with the directors' appreciation night game between Mansfield and Fostoria Tuesday night, the price will be 20 cents for all seats. The former price was 45 cents for general admission seats and 25 cents for bleachers.

Hens Continue Winning Streak

Toledo Wins Two Games From St. Paul Club.

(By Associated Press)

Toledo's Mudhens started a little late but at least they're headed in the right direction.

* * *

The Hens, cellar-dwellers most of the American Association season so far, recently began a spurt upward and now have an outside chance of qualifying for the Shaughnessy playoff. A double victory, 8-1 and 1-2 over fifth-place St. Paul, yesterday left the sixth-place Hens five and a half games back of Louisville in fourth. Toledo has about 30 games yet to play.

* * *

Kansas City won its first game in 10 starts Sunday defeating Indianapolis 3 to 2 on Tommy Ross' two-hit pitching. Ross weakened in the second half of the scheduled 7-inning battle.

Persistent Columbus climbed within one game of Minneapolis again by defeating the Millers, 4 to 3. Rain halted the second engagement in the third inning.

Heroes and Goats

(By International News Service)

HEROES — Rookie Earl Johnson, Red Sox who pitched a five-hitter as Boston beat the Senators. Veteran Dixie Walker, Dodgers, whose hitting featured Brooklyn's double victory over the Reds.

GOATS—Al Benton, Tigers who blew up in the ninth allowing the White Sox to score three runs and take the game. Jim Turner, Reds who failed to protect a three-run lead in the second game of a doubleheader with the Cubs.

Florida has 438 acres of water for each fishing license, excluding the ocean.

PROFESSIONAL, AMATEUR GOLFERS COMPETE TODAY

YOUNGSTOWN—(AP)—Professional and amateur golfers competed today in opening rounds of the first $500 Mahoning open championship at 36-holes.

Leading contenders were Clevelanders Billy Burke, former national open title holder, and Reggie Myles, winner of this year's Poland open.

League-Leading Indians Begin Tell-Tale Tour

Tribe Has Chief Rainmaker In St. Louis Tilt Yesterday As Tigers Lose.

BOSTON—(AP)—The Indians opened the tell-tale tour here today, and besides a three and one-half game lead they had Chief Rainmaker in their corner.

After a three-game series here, the Tribe travels to New York, Washington, Philadelphia and Chicago before returning home Sept. 2.

If they end the tour in first place, they expect to take the pennant easily. Except for two three-day jaunts to Detroit, Cleveland will play at home the rest of the month.

The Rainmaker lined up with the Indians for a triple favor. He washed out the first game of a double header with St. Louis in the 10th inning after the Browns had scored four runs, and the score reverted to a 2-2 tie, he saved Johnny Allen, who was scheduled to pitch the nightcap, for the opener here and he made it necessary for St. Louis and Cleveland to play another twin bill at Cleveland, a bill the business office won't regret.

* * *

Allen, winner of seven against four defeats, opposed Joe Heving, with a record of seven and two, today.

* * *

The tie game was a pitching duel between Al Smith, Cleveland southpaw, and Vernon Kennedy, with the result widening the Indians' margin over Detroit by a half-game as the Tigers dropped a decision to Chicago.

Smith had a 2 to 1 victory tucked away until the ninth, when he walked Harlond Clift. The Browns' third-sacker took second on George McQuinn's sacrifice and scored as John Berardino singled.

In the first half of the extra inning, Don Heffner singled but was out at second on Myril Hoag's attempted sacrifice. Rip Radcliff singled then Smith got in trouble by walking Wally Judnich, filling the bases. A double by Clift scored two runs and McQuinn singled to plate the other two. At that point, the Rainmaker stepped in.

* * *

Cleveland got its runs in the first two innings. Ben Chapman walked to lead off in the initial frame, took third on Roy Weatherly's double and scored on Beau Bell's grounder.

* * *

The second came when Ray Mack got his 10th home run at the start of the second.

Ontario Loses In Loop Tilt

Little Sandusky Marks Up 12 to 5 Victory.

Little Sandusky defeated Ontario 12 to 5 in a North Central Ohio baseball league game played at Ontario yesterday afternoon.

* * *

Piling up an early lead, the Sanduskians collected 12 hits, in a game called in the sixth inning because of rain. The Sandusky team put across four runs in the first inning, three in the third, one in the fifth, and four more in the sixth.

* * *

Pat Patterson started on the mound for Ontario but was replaced by McFadden in the fifth. R. Culver was on the mound for the visitors and allowed eight safeties.

Catcher Dillon led the batting attack for the visitors, collecting four out of four, and Beal led the Ontario attack collecting three for three.

Nick's Place Divide Tilts

Mansfielders Win Nightcap After Dropping Opener.

After losing the first game of a double-header 4 to 2 to the Galion softball team at Heise park in Galion yesterday, Nick's Place nine came back in the second half of the twin bill to cop an abbreviated tilt 4 to 3, in a game called in the fifth inning because of rain.

* * *

Fans Jittery As Reds Open Home Stand

Cincinnati Drops Two Games As Brooklyn Gains In National Pennant Race.

By SID FEDER, Associated Press Sports Writer

THAT wasn't an S-O-S that broke in on your setting-up exercises over the radio this morning. It was only an emergency call from Deacon Will McKechnie to rush his Cincinnati Reds some bats without holes in 'em.

The good deacon realizes it's a case of getting some bats loaded with base hits—or else. For the Dodgers of Brooklyn, who apparently didn't read the headlines about the Rhinelanders being "in" with the National league pennant, are on the prowl again.

The Reds' weak hitting has been the big reason why they've lost 12 of their last 20 games since the end of July. And so far this month the Dodgers have shaved Cincinnati's league lead down from 7½ to 4½ games.

The "clutch" hitting was missing again yesterday as the Reds lost both games of a doubleheader to the St. Louis Cardinals, 3-1 and 5-4. At the same time Leo Durocher took over the Brooklyn shortstop chores and helped his Dodgers chill the warmed-up Boston Bees twice, 7-2 and 3-1.

* * *

Lefty Larry French sang the Pittsburgh Pirates to sleep with a six-hitter for a 9-1 Chicago Cub victory, which left the Bucs and the Cubs tied for fifth place.

The Phillies completed the National League picture by whipping the New York Giants twice 6-3 and 8-6.

Cleveland's American League leaders and the St Louis Browns were deadlocked at 2-all going into the 10th inning of their first game when rain washed out the rest of their scheduled doubleheader. However, the Tribe picked a half game on the second-place Detroit Tigers, for James (Miracle Man) Dykes' Chicago White Sox scored three times in the ninth inning to knock off the Bengals, 7-5.

The New York Yankees blew hot and cold, walloping the Athletics 9-1 behind Steve Sundra's six-hit elbowing in the opener, then going down 7-3 before Johnny Babich.

Earl Johnson, the Boston Red Sox recent importation of pitching hope, stopped the Senators with five hits for a 4-2 decision.

Akron Yankees Add to Loop Lead

AKRON—(AP)—Akron's Yankees tacked a valuable half game to their Mid-Atlantic league lead yesterday in the one contest the weatherman permitted in the loop.

* * *

Steve Souchock's home run with two aboard in the seventh sparked the 7 to 4 victory over Dayton. Mel Queen went the route for the Yankees, hanging up his 14th win.

* * *

The game was finished barely ahead of a hard rain that forced postponement of a nightcap. Canton at Charleston and Youngstown at Portsmouth also were rained out.

McNEILL BEATS KOVACS

NEWPORT, R. I.—(AP)—Don McNeill trounces Frank Kovacs, 9-7, 6-2, 6-4 in final of Newport Casino tennis tourney and teams with Frank Parker to win doubles, beating Charles Mattmann and Robert Harmon, 9-7, 6-1, 7-5.

CLASH IN FINAL

LIMA—(AP)—Springfield, O., and Huntington, W. Va., teams squared off today for the deciding game of the three-state American Legion junior baseball championship. The contest, originally scheduled yesterday, was postponed because of rain.

Hollywood Speaks---

—By ROBBIN COONS

HOLLYWOD- "Boom Town," Screenplay by John Lee Mahin from story by James Edward Grant. Directed by Jack Conway. Principals: Clark Gable, Spencer Tracy, Claudette Colbert, Hedy Lamarr, Frank Morgan, Lionel Atwell, Chill Wills, Marion Martin, Minna Gombell.

* * *

This is a double-feature all by itself, a lusty melodramatic panorama of wild-catters in the oil fields. It's for fans who crave doublebarreled action, salted with laughs, romance and the liberal spice of hokum.

It's friendly-enemy stuff, the pals who can't get along with or without each other. They're Big John Gable and Square John Tracy. They're wildcatters, chasing the black gold across country, hitting it rich and hitting it broke, fighting it out wherever they go.

The 1918 boom town of Burkburnett is the opening locale a crazy mad town where the two Johns seal their friendship by a fall in the mud and a saloon brawl. That's where they "borrow" their drilling equipment from Dealer Frank Morgan, hit salt water, hit the rails for a stake to try again. That's where the girl (Colbert) comes looking for her near-fiance Square John, meets Big John and is bowled over so that Square John, rushing into town to report the well is a gusher, finds them married. That's where he's a good sport about it, until he finds Big John trifling with the dance hall dame, and that's the end of a beautiful friendship—for the time being.

It's a picture with action right up to the end, when Big and Square fight it out in New York's oil market and then with fists. It's a grand, movie-wise movie, with pace and rip-roaring atmosphere and good sound acting.

Miss Lamarr—Star No. 4—shows up belatedly as the other woman, out to take Big John from Square John. Miss Lamarr, extremely decorative, gives the impression of a filly in too fast company.

* * *

"The Lady in Question," Screenplay by Lewis Meltzer from story by Marcel Achard. Directed by Charles Vidor. Principals: Brian Aherne, Rita Hayworth, Glenn Ford, Irene Rich, George Coulouris, Evelyn Keyes, Edward Norris, Curt Bois.

* * *

This is what happens when a nice old juror at a murder trial in Paris takes the pretty, acquitted defendant into his home and begins to tell innocent lies about her to his pleasant but puzzled wife (Rich).

Morestan (Aherne) is a delightful character, too generous for his bicycle-and-music shop's good, too sympathetic for his own. After the girl (Hayworth) shows up, old Morestan is in hotter water all the time—especially because another juror (Bois) insists on returning to rehash the trial and thus heightens the danger of exposure. When Papa Morestan's daughter (Keyes) learns that her fiance (Norris) is the sort of no-good who'll make love to the lady in question, and his son (Ford) falls in love with her and tries to rob the till for an elopement, Papa begins to believe he was wrong in insisting on acquittal.

COURT 'FRIEND' HITS DIVORCE

Would Halt Habit Through Legal Limit Placed on Separations.

DETROIT—(U.P.)—For a "Friend of the Court," Edward Pokorny has hard theories on some legal proceedings, particularly divorce cases.

Pokorny, who has been Friend of the Court of Wayne county for the past 22 years, stoutly insists that one separation, "except in the gravest of cases," is sufficient.

So convinced is he that "divorce is becoming a habit to some people," Pokorny is formulating a law, which he plans to present to the legislature, holding the quota of divorces to one per person.

"Divorce may be the so-called safety valve of society," Pokorny said, "but there comes a time when even a good safety valve must, of necessity, be shut off."

Supporting his contention that divorce gets to be habit, Pokorny pointed to the Wayne county court records, which reveal that separations are being sanctioned at the rate of approximately 6,000 a year. The records also show, he said, that 75 per cent of the divorced persons re-marry and some as many as three and four times.

He admits that "everybody makes mistakes" but holds that there is no justification for making these mistakes over and over at the cost of society.

Pointing to Michigan's habitual criminal law as an example of a crime deterrent, he explained that he hoped his statute would serve the same purpose.

"What we need is a divorce deterrent and our one-divorce plan may be just what we are looking for," he continued. "Exceptions will be made for adultery, but there would be safeguards such as requiring two witnesses and every effort made to prevent collusion."

He said he has thoroughly discussed his proposed bill with authorities in Milwaukee, Wis. and Cleveland, O.

SAVES FATHER

Baby's Presence Gets Dad Out of Six Fines.

SAN FRANCISCO—(INS)—You won't find a more firm believer in the majesty of the law—including traffic laws—than Municipal Judge Hugh Smith.

But nevertheless Judge Smith with a broad grin tore up six parking tags levied against George H. Reynolds.

Appearing before the judge, Reynolds shifted a blanket-wrapped bundle from one arm to the other and explained:

"I got those tags for parking over night outside my house. I'm out of work, and we haven't any garage, and I thought I'd better save every penny I could, for this . . ." He nodded at the bundle, which promptly gurgled back.

Judge Smith smiled as the tousled top of Reynolds' year-old son, George Jr., squirmed out of the blanket, and promptly tore the tags to shreds.

HURRICANE SCARS

BOSTON—(U.P.)—Massachusetts still is repairing the damage suffered in the September, 1938, hurricane that swept through New England. State Conservation Commissioner Raymond J. Kenney reports that during the past spring, 2,225,000 pine and spruce trees were planted to replace those overturned in state forests and parks.

RABBIT HUNTERS

SACRAMENTO, Cal.—(U.P.)—The California fish and game commission has ordered closed season on rabbit hunting in parts of four southern California counties — to protect quail. The commission hopes to end the practice of hunters "going out for rabbits but returning with a bag of quail."

When a wise man buries animosity he forgets where he planted it.

AHEAD OF STATE

Sales Tax Gain in County Far Above Ohio Average.

Richland county's sales tax gain for the first week of August over the corresponding week last year was 40 per cent as compared to a state average of 16 per cent, figures compiled by the state tax department showed today.

Receipts in Richland county mounted to $12,620 for the week, an increase of $3,650 over the first week of August, 1939, and a marked gain over the final week of July.

Collections in the county to the second week of August amounted to $339,480, a gain of $50,069 over the same period last year.

Ohio's collections so far in 1940 are approximately $2,700,000 ahead of last year, State Treasurer Don H. Ebright's report showed.

THEATERS

Epic of South Seas.

The epic of the South Seas, "South of Pago Pago," showing at the Ohio, concerns the strange adventures of Bucko Larson and Ruby Taylor, who undertake an expedition to a fabulous pearl bed south of Pago Pago. Overcome by greed and lust for wealth, Larson uses all kinds of foul methods to enslave the natives so that they will dive for pearls. Through the love of Ruby for these people they are set free of Larson.

Musical Comedy Talent.

Bringing to the screen some of Hollywood's finest musical comedy talent, "The Boys From Syracuse," the Jules Levey's film version of the stage hit, is appearing at the Madison. The cast includes nine principals, and scores of dancing beauties and thousands of extras. Such stars as Rosemary Lane, Allan Jones, Irene Hervey, Charles Butterworth, Alan Mowbray, Eric Blore, Martha Raye and Joe Penner appear in this comedy romance.

* * *

Conditions In Dust Bowl Area.

"Three Faces West," stirring drama of conditions in the dust bowl areas, with an all star cast including John Wayne, Sigrid Gurie, Charles Coburn and others, is showing at the Park. This is a first run picture depicting a present-day community in the Middle West where there is no doctor to combat the poverty and disease of desolate people. The co-feature is "Mexicali Rose," with Gene Autry in the leading role.

* * *

Deanna Sings Many Songs.

Deanna Durbin, Kay Francis, Lewis Howard and Walter Pidgeon have the leading roles in the picture "It's a Date," which is showing at the Ritz. The story begins on Broadway, moves speedily to Maine and finally to Hawaii. Deanna sings several new songs, "Love Is All," "Ave Maria," "Musetta's Street Song," "Loch Lomond," "It Happened In Kaloha," "Gypsy Lullaby" and "Rhythm of the Islands." The co-feature is "Dr. Cyclops," a technicolor film.

RESOLUTION NO. 40-115

By Mr. Berg:

Declaring it necessary to improve Walter Avenue from Sturges Avenue to Wood Street by grading the street and paving the roadway with concrete, brick, block, sheet asphalt or other suitable material and constructing the necessary curbing, headers, storm drainage, etc.

Be it Resolved by the Council of the City of Mansfield, State of Ohio, Three-Fourths of all Members elected thereunto concurring.

Sec. 1. That it is necessary to improve Walter Avenue from Sturges Avenue to Wood Street by grading the street and paving the roadway with concrete, brick, block, sheet asphalt or other suitable material and constructing the necessary curbing, headers, storm drainage, etc.

Sec. 2. That the grade of said street as improved shall be the established grade, and that the grade of the curbs shall be as established.

Sec. 3. That the plans, specifications, estimates and profiles of the proposed improvement heretofore prepared by the City Civil Engineer and now on file in the office of the Department of Public Service, be and the same are hereby approved.

Sec. 4. That the whole cost of said improvement, less the cost of intersections and one-fiftieth of the total cost shall be assessed by the foot front upon the following described lots and lands, to-wit: all lots and lands bounding and abutting upon the proposed improvement which said lots and lands are hereby determined to be specifically benefitted by said improvement; and the cost of said improvement shall include the expense of printing, publishing and serving the necessary legal notices, the printing and publishing of the necessary resolutions and ordinances, the cost of construction and inspection together with interest on bonds issued in anticipation of the collection of deferred assessments, and all other necessary expenditures.

Sec. 5. That the assessments so to be levied shall be paid in five annual installments, with interest on deferred payments at the same rate as to be borne by the bonds to be issued therefor, provided that the owner of any property assessed may, at his option, pay such assessment in cash within thirty days from and after the passage of the assessing ordinance in which case said cash assessment shall not include any item of interest upon bonds to be issued in anticipation of the collection of deferred installments of assessments.

Sec. 6. That bonds of the City of Mansfield shall be issued in anticipation of the collection of assessments by installments and in an amount equal thereto.

Sec. 7. That the remainder of the entire cost of said improvement not specially assessed, including the cost of intersections together with the cost of any real estate or interest therein purchased or appropriated and the cost and expense of any appropriation proceeding therefor and the damages awarded any owner of abutting or abutting lands and interest therein and the cost and expense of such award shall be paid by the City of Mansfield, Ohio in the manner provided by law.

Sec. 8. This resolution shall take effect and be in force from and after the earliest period allowed by law.

Passed August 6, 1940.

(Signed) HOWARD G. MILLER, President of Council.

GIRL ARRESTED ON BEER SALE

Signed Statement on Age Used as Evidence In Ashland Case.

ASHLAND — Warnings of the police drive being started on the sale of liquor and beer to minors were given to local stores, etc., several weeks ago.

The first arrest was made by the sheriff's department when a 19-year-old Savannah girl was taken into custody for giving false information concerning her age for the purpose of buying beer.

The girl signed a statement in a local cafe that she was 21 and could legally buy beer. The statement is held by the sheriff's department as a basis for an affidavit against the girl.

A minor, aged 17 also, was apprehended by police.

30 Days On Vendol Made Big Change In Mansfield Lady

Tried for Years to Find Right Medicine to Relieve Troubles Due to Constipation. Feels Fine Now, Advises Everyone Try Vendol.

MRS. RUTH CULP

"Constipation was causing me a lot of troubles. I had to take strong medicine for relief but seemed these things left me more constipated all the time," says Mrs. Ruth Culp of 99 East Fourth street, Mansfield.

"There were not many days that I didn't suffer from dizziness, headaches and spots swimming before my eyes. I didn't eat heavy meals but what I did, lay heavy in my stomach and would often come back so sour it burned like fire. My stomach felt tight and swollen after meals and the gas felt at times like it would shut off my breath. Most all my muscles felt sore and stiff and my joints were full of pains. Cramping pains in my legs were so bad some nights I'd get up and walk the floor and had frequent calls from my kidneys.

"Vendol brought the most satisfying relief from constipation that I had never found, then all these annoying troubles gradually went away and today I'm like a different person. I can eat anything I want even pork and other things I didn't dare touch before. My sleep is restful so that I get up every morning ready for the day's work. I began taking Vendol a month ago and wish I had started sooner. I give full credit to Vendol and advise everyone suffering like I did to begin at once on this excellent medicine."

Vendol is sold by most all leading druggists here and is especially recommended by Central Drug store, corner Main and Fourth streets.

Mayer Collects Sub-Par 68 In Winning Golf Match

Zeides Defeats Linster In 1st Round Match

Rollie Rachel Beaten By Mayers; Zediker Wins At Coolridge; Moorhead Triumphs.

JOE MAYER, defending champion, and one of the top-ranking amateur shotmakers in this district, smashed out a scorching four-under-par 68 yesterday to advance in the annual Possum Run golf championship tournament.

With his drives and approaches working to perfection, Mayer toured the course in easy fashion to defeat Rollie Rachel, 4 and 3. Mayer forged ahead on the first nine and never trailed.

One of the major upsets in the tournament was scored yesterday when Pete Zeides defeated the highly favored Pete Linster, runner-up in last year's tournament, two and one. Zeides scored a 71 and Linster a 72.

In the other matches in the opening round John Carr won out over Tony Lake, one up; Carl Wiseman defeated Ray Oak three and two; Ted Etzel took Jim Stout one up; Grant Hanniwald was victorious over Lawrence Deley, three and two; and Carl Kushin took Frank Cipris and A. Kushin took over Nick Linster both one up.

* * *

Bobby Moorhead moved another notch nearer his second straight Westbrook country club golf championship by eliminating W. H. Thompson in second-round match at the club yesterday.

Moorhead, a favorite to cop the title, chalked up a 4 and 3 triumph over Thompson.

In other first round matches, E. E Hoovler beat Dr. P. A. Stoodt, 3 and 2, H. P. Hosler turned back Paul Auxter, one up on the 19th; Dr. Art Sprecker defeated E A. Eisely, 3 and 2. Bill Black, jr., stopped Paul Stephens, 3 and 2. Jim Hoffman eliminated W. O. Critchfield, 4 and 3. Judge G. E. Kalbfleisch advanced over M. M. Feeman, 2 up and B. B Drummond downed H H Shaw, 3 and 2.

Gene Zediker took the role of a favorite today in the Coolridge Country club golf championship tourney following his impressive 6 and 5 win over Tony Schedek in a first round match yesterday.

John Jocha beat Roy Rachel, 2 up; Frank Jocha stopped Pete Zimmerman, one up on the 20th hole; Joe Kasper won over Nick Loris, 2 and 1. Steve Stutzinger defeated Phil Premy, 6 and 5. Carl Rancinger topped Harold Beer, 4 and 2 Vin Malaska scored a 3 and 2 win over George Zimmerman and Red Keck halted George Sferro, 4 and 3

Thelma Linster Drops Out of Possum Tourney.

A familiar figure was missing from the annual women's golf tournament which got under way yesterday at the Possum Run golf course.

She was Thelma Linster, winner of the tournament for the past three years, who withdrew yesterday from this year's tournament due to lack of competition. Mrs. Linster won the state women's public links championship played recently at Akron.

Four matches were played in the opening round of the women's tournament at Possum Run yesterday. Mrs. Fay Strome won over Mrs Ray Beal two and one; Harriet Roth defeated Mrs. Harry Schlegel one up; Mrs. V. H. Oberlander bowed to Mrs. A Kushin two and one and Mrs. Flo Adams beat Mrs. Ed Eichen one up.

Poland Wins In Tournament

Shelby Golfer Defeats Smith In Semi-Final Match.

Hub Poland, one of Shelby's better golfers, eliminated Harry Smith (the Babe Ruth of the Shelby links) yesterday, 5 and 4 in the semi-final match for the Presidents cup. Hub shot sub-par all the way to beat Smith. Going out in 35, one under par, Hub turned on the heat on the second round coming in in 33, three under par for a 68 and a new club record.

SPORTS PARADE

By HENRY M'LEMORE

NEW YORK—(U.P.)—Putting the sport shot here and there: Patience is its own reward. I picked Bimelech to win the Kentucky Derby and he lost. I also named Bimelech as the greatest horse since Man o'War and now he won't even finish out the season, proving that the kiss of death is potent as ever.

* * *

Now that the Bradley colt has bid farewell, the turf world will never know just how he might have run if a new jockey had been on his back. Just two weeks ago Basil James was to have ridden him—in place of Freddie Smith—in the American derby but the track came up mud.

* * *

Saturday Don Meade was supposed to have the mount in the Travers, but again Bimmie was scratched. If he doesn't come back—and if you remember Lawrin, Dauber, War Admiral, Stagehand and many another you know they very seldom do come back—the argument of whether he was a poor horse or Smith a poor jock never will be settled . . .

It is strange that in this country we have only two great champions, and that one is famed to almost the same extent that the other is ignored. . . . The first is Joe Louis, and I need not introduce him. The second is Alice Marble, and for all the notice she gets she might be a clerk behind a perfume counter instead of perhaps the greatest woman tennis player any of us ever has seen. . . . Apparently she is so much better than the opponents that it won't be news until she is defeated.

* * *

In Louis' case the law of supply and demand might just as well be repealed . . . Joe is in great demand of opponents, but there is no supply whatsoever. . . . If he accepts a proposed offer to tour South America, he will be the first heavyweight champion ever to venture below the equator on this hemisphere . . . certainly, the gauchos couldn't have waited for a more efficient man to come along . . . If you pride yourself on your skill as an amateur magician, think of Jimmy Dykes.

* * *

The Chicago White Sox manager hasn't spent more than a dime for a ballplayer since Connie Mack first donned his celluloid collar yet the Sox continue firm in their position as the No 1 troublemakers of the American League. . . Just what keeps them in the first division, I don't know, but if Dykes isn't using mirrors he must know all the rites of witchcraft or hypnotism . . . or both . . .

Hard-Luck Players Meet in Net Finals

CINCINNATI (AP)—Two hard-luck players ranked high among favorites to win the national public parks tennis tournament opening here today.

Manager Frank Beeber's club, the defending champions, will have Jim Fullager available for mound duty Tuesday night.

Mansfielders Advance In Softball Meet

Merchant Girls Trip Grafton In Semi-Final Setto.

TWELVE Mansfield girls today had one thought in mind—to win the state girls' softball tournament championship.

* * *

The girls make up the Mansfield Merchants softball team and they advanced to the finals by handing the Grafton Merchants a 4 to 2 beating in a semi-final tussle at Toledo yesterday.

* * *

With the score deadlocked at 2-all in the sixth frame the Merchants pounded over two markers to forge ahead and win the contest. Mansfield was to meet the Elyria Bittners in the finals last night, but rain forced postponement of the game.

When the finals will be played is not known today. Daugherty, manager of the team, said early today that the district softball commissioner would select either Toledo or Massillon as the site for the championship game. It marks the first time a Mansfield girls' team has reached the finals of a state tourney.

The Merchants had Helen Sturgeon and Florence Bittinger to thank for yesterday's triumph.

* * *

Helen tripled and came home on Bittinger's single in the sixth to break the 2-all tie. Frances Clark was on the hill for the winners and set the Grafton team down with three hits.

* * *

Both teams scored a run in the first inning and each added a marker in the fourth. The Mansfielders collected eight hits and committed two errors. A box score of the game was not available.

Youngsters Compete At 'Shoot'

The Grand American trapshooting contest being run off at Vandalia, O., is highlighted by the two youngsters, above, who are regarded by experts as the hottest trapshooting prospects of the current year. They are 15-year-old Ray Feinup, left, of St. Louis, and Rudy Etchen, 17, of Kansas City.

Braves Divide Games With Fostoria Team

THE Mansfield Braves divided a double header out at the Fairground yesterday before one of the smallest Sunday crowds of the year.

* * *

With approximately 300 spectators looking on, Mansfield copped the opener, 5 to 3, but dropped the nightcap by a 4 to 3 count.

* * *

Bob Snider worked on the mound in the first Ohio State league contest and scattered 11 hits. He was effective in the pinches and the Red Birds couldn't score more than a run in any inning.

Mansfield plays in Fremont today and George Laurila or Bob Arnold will be Manager Dewey Stover's choice to toe the rubber. The Braves return to the Fair park Tuesday to meet Fremont before a Mansfield Braves director's appreciation crowd at 8:30 p. m.

The Braves came from behind to annex the initial affray yesterday, but blew an early lead in losing the second melee. Charles Byers worked on the hill in the nightcap, and, although he only gave up three hits they were timely.

Fostoria pued up a 2 to 0 advantage in the third inning of the opener, but the Braves knotted the score in the fourth. Mansfield was leading by a 3-2 count in the seventh and the Red Birds with Gene Woodling pacing the attack the Braves scored twice in the eighth to again take the lead and win the setto.

The Braves were leading, 3 to 1, as the teams went into the third frame of the seventh-inning night cap. Fostoria collected two runs to tie the score and then added what proved to be their winning run in the next chapter.

* * *

After scoring three times in the first stanza, the Braves were held scoreless by Osborne. Mansfield secured eight hits, but was unable to produce the bingles with runners on the bases.

* * *

Woodling pounded out a home run, double and single in the first tussle, while Herb Woodten, Hal Hundemer and Howard Beals had two bingles apiece in the second tilt. Manager Bob Jones hit a four bagger in the opener, while Perrone pounded out a circuit clout in the second for the Red Birds.

Joe C. Hartline, president of the Mansfield Braves, announced today that the admission price for the rest of the season will be reduced. Starting with the directors' appreciation night game between Mansfield and Fostoria Tuesday night, the price will be 20 cents for all seats. The former price was 45 cents for general admission seats and 25 cents for bleachers.

Hens Continue Winning Streak

Toledo Wins Two Games From St. Paul Club.

(By Associated Press)

Toledo's Mudhens started a little late but at least they're headed in the right direction.

* * *

The Hens, cellar-dwellers most of the American Association season so far, recently began a spurt upward and now have an outside chance of qualifying for the Shaughnessy playoff. A double victory, 8-4 and 4-2 over fifth-place St. Paul, yesterday left the sixth-place Hens five and a half games back of Louisville in fourth. Toledo has about 30 games yet to play.

* * *

Kansas City won its first game in 10 starts Sunday defeating Indianapolis, 4 to 2 on Tommy Bridges' six-hit pitching. Rain washed out the second half of the scheduled twin bill.

* * *

Persistent Columbus climbed within one game of Minneapolis again by defeating the Millers, 4 to 3. Rain halted the second engagement in the third inning.

EAGLES MEET RIVALS

The Eagles lodge softball club will meet the Tavernettes at 6:15 p. m. today at Liberty park. All players are requested to meet at the field at 6 p. m.

Softball Banquet Set For Wednesday Night.

Scheduled to be held tomorrow night, the Mansfield Wrecking company All-Stars and the Sons of Herman softball players will hold their banquet at 8 p. m. Wednesday, it was announced today by Dave Lapine, business manager of the All-Stars. The dinner was set for Tuesday, but the Hermans play in the finals of the district softball tournament at Elyria tomorrow night.

Heroes and Goats

(By International News Service)

HEROES — Rookie Earl Johnson, Red Sox, who pitched a five-hitter as Boston beat the Senators; Veteran Dixie Walker, Dodgers, whose hitting featured Brooklyn's double victory over the Reds.

GOATS—Al Benton, Tigers, who blew up in the ninth allowing the White Sox to score three runs and take the game; Jim Turner, Reds, who failed to protect a three-run lead in the second game of a doubleheader with the Cubs.

League-Leading Indians Begin Tell-Tale Tour

Tribe Has Chief Rainmaker In St. Louis Tilt Yesterday As Tigers Lose.

BOSTON—(AP)—The Indians opened the tell-tale tour here today, and besides a three and one-half game lead they had Chief Rainmaker in their corner.

After a three-game series here, the Tribe travels to New York, Washington, Philadelphia and Chicago before returning home Sept. 2.

If they end the tour in first place, they expect to take the pennant easily. Except for two three-day jaunts to Detroit, Cleveland will play at home the rest of the month.

The Rainmaker lined up with the Indians for a triple favor: He washed out the first game of a double header with St. Louis in the 10th inning after the Browns had scored four runs, and the score reverted to a 2-2 tie; he saved Johnny Allen, who was scheduled to pitch the nightcap, for the opener here; and he made it necessary for St. Louis and Cleveland to play another twin bill at Cleveland, a bill the business office won't regret.

* * *

Allen, winner of seven against four defeats, opposed Joe Heving, with a record of seven and two, today.

* * *

The tie game was a pitching duel between Al Smith, Cleveland southpaw, and Vernon Kennedy, with the result widening the Indians' margin over Detroit by a half-game as the Tigers dropped a decision to Chicago.

Smith had a 2 to 1 victory tucked away until the ninth, when he walked Harlond Clift. The Browns' third-sacker took second on George McQuinn's sacrifice and scored as John Berardino singled.

In the first half of the extra inning, Don Heffner singled but was out at second on Myril Hoag's attempted sacrifice. Rip Radcliff singled then Smith got in trouble by walking Wally Judnich, filling the bases. A double by Clift scored two runs and McQuinn singled to plate the other two. At that point, the Rainmaker stepped in.

* * *

Cleveland got its runs in the first two innings. Ben Chapman walked to lead off in the initial frame, took third on Roy Weatherly's double and scored on Beau Bell's grounder.

* * *

The second came when Ray Mack got his 10th home run at the start of the second.

Ontario Loses In Loop Tilt

Little Sandusky Marks Up 12 to 5 Victory.

Little Sandusky defeated Ontario 12 to 5 in a North Central Ohio baseball league game played at Ontario yesterday afternoon.

* * *

Piling up an early lead, the Sanduskians collected 12 hits, in a game called in the sixth inning because of rain. The Sandusky team put across four runs in the first inning, three in the third, one in the fifth, and four more in the sixth.

* * *

Pat Patterson started on the mound for Ontario but was replaced by McFadden in the fifth. R. Culver was on the mound for the visitors and allowed eight safeties.

Catcher Dillon led the batting attack for the visitors, collecting four out of four, and Beal led the Ontario attack collecting three for three.

Mansfielders Win Nightcap After Dropping Opener.

After losing the first game of a double-header 4 to 2 to the Galion softball team at Heise park in Galion yesterday, Nick's Place nine came back in the second half of the twin bill to cop an abbreviated tilt, 4 to 3, in a game called in the fifth inning because of rain.

* * *

Fans Jittery As Reds Open Home Stand

Cincinnati Drops Two Games As Brooklyn Gains In National Pennant Race.

By SID FEDER, Associated Press Sports Writer

THAT wasn't an S-O-S that broke in on your setting-up exercises over the radio this morning. It was only an emergency call from Deacon Will McKechnie to rush his Cincinnati Reds some bats without holes in 'em.

The good deacon realizes it's a case of getting some bats loaded with base hits—or else. For the Dodgers of Brooklyn, who apparently didn't read the headlines about the Rhinelanders being "in" with the National league pennant, are on the prowl again.

The Reds' weak hitting has been the big reason why they've lost 12 of their last 20 games since the end of July. And so far this month the Dodgers have shaved Cincinnati's league lead down from 7½ to 4½ games.

The "clutch" hitting was missing again yesterday as the Reds lost both games of a doubleheader to the St. Louis Cardinals, 3-1 and 5-4. At the same time Leo Durocher took over the Brooklyn shortstop chores and helped his Dodgers chill the warmed-up Boston Bees twice, 7-2 and 3-1.

* * *

Lefty Larry French sang the Pittsburgh Pirates to sleep with a six-hitter for a 9-1 Chicago Cub victory, which left the Bucs and the Cubs tied for fifth place.

The Phillies completed the National League picture by whipping the New York Giants twice 6-3 and 8-6.

Cleveland's American League leaders and the St. Louis Browns were deadlocked at 2-all going into the 10th inning of their first game when rain washed out the rest of their scheduled doubleheader. However, the Tribe picked a half game on the second-place Detroit Tigers, for James (Miracle Man) Dykes' Chicago White Sox scored three times in the ninth inning to knock off the Bengals, 7-5.

The New York Yankees blew hot and cold, walloping the Athletics 9-1 behind Steve Sundra's six-hit elbowing in the opener, then going down 7-3 before Johnny Babich.

Earl Johnson, the Boston Red Sox recent importation of pitching hope, stopped the Senators with five hits for a 4-2 decision.

Akron Yankees Add to Loop Lead

AKRON—(AP)—Akron's Yankees tacked a valuable half game to their Mid-Atlantic league lead yesterday in the one contest the weatherman permitted in the loop.

* * *

Steve Souchock's home run with two aboard in the seventh sparked the 7 to 4 victory over Dayton. Mel Queen went the route for the Yankees, hanging up his 14th win.

* * *

The game was finished barely ahead of a hard rain that forced postponement of a nightcap. Canton at Charleston and Youngstown at Portsmouth also were rained out.

McNEILL BEATS KOVACS

NEWPORT, R. I.—(AP)—Don McNeill trounces Frank Kovacs, 9-7, 6-2, 6-4 in final of Newport Casino tennis tourney and teams with Frank Parker to win doubles, beating Charles Mattmann and Robert Harmon, 9-7, 6-1, 7-5.

CLASH IN FINAL

LIMA—(AP)—Springfield, O., and Huntington, W. Va., teams squared off today for the deciding game of the three-state American Legion junior baseball championship. The contest, originally scheduled yesterday, was postponed because of rain.

Hollywood Speaks---

—By ROBBIN COONS

HOLLYWOOD—"Boom Town." Screenplay by John Lee Mahin from story by James Edward Grant. Directed by Jack Conway. Principals: Clark Gable, Spencer Tracy, Claudette Colbert, Hedy Lamarr, Frank Morgan, Lionel Atwell, Chill Wills, Marion Martin, Minna Gombell.

* * *

This is a double-feature all by itself, a lusty melodramatic panorama of wild-catters in the oil fields. It's for fans who crave doublebarreled action, salted with laughs, romance and the liberal spice of hokum.

It's friendly-enemy stuff, the pals who can't get along with or without each other. They're Big John Gable and Square John Tracy. They're wildcatters, chasing the black gold across country, hitting it rich and hitting it broke, fighting it out wherever they go.

The 1918 boom town of Burkburnett is the opening locale a crazy mad town where the two Johns seal their friendship by a fall in the mud and a saloon brawl. That's where they "borrow" their drilling equipment from Dealer Frank Morgan, hit salt water, hit the rails for a stake to try again. That's where the girl (Colbert) comes looking for her near-fiance Square John, meets Big John and is bowled over—so that Square John, rushing into town to report the well is a gusher, finds them married. That's where he's a good sport about it, until he finds Big John trifling with the dance hall dame, and that's the end of a beautiful friendship—for the time being.

It's a picture with action right up to the end, when Big and Square fight it out in New York's oil market and then with fists. It's a grand, movie-wise movie, with pace and rip-roaring atmosphere and good sound acting.

Miss Lamarr—Star No 4—shows up belatedly as the other woman, out to take Big John from Square John. Miss Lamarr, extremely decorative, gives the impression of a fully in too fast company.

* * *

"The Lady in Question." Screenplay by Lewis Meltzer from story by Marcel Achard. Directed by Charles Vidor. Principals: Brian Aherne, Rita Hayworth, Glenn Ford, Irene Rich, George Coulouris, Evelyn Keyes, Edward Norris, Curt Bois.

* * *

This is what happens when a nice old juror at a murder trial in Paris takes the pretty, acquitted defendant into his home and begins to tell innocent lies about her to his pleasant but puzzled wife (Rich).

Morestan (Aherne) is a delightful character, too generous for his bicycle-and-music shop's good, too sympathetic for his own. After the girl (Hayworth) shows up, old Morestan is in hotter water all the time—especially because another juror (Bois) insists on returning to rehash the trial and thus heightens the danger of exposure. When Papa Morestan's daughter (Keyes) learns that her fiance (Norris) is the sort of no-good who'll make love to the lady in question, and his son (Ford) falls in love with her and tries to rob the till for an elopement, Papa begins to believe he was wrong in insisting on acquittal.

Would Halt Habit Through Legal Limit Placed on Separations.

DETROIT—(U.P.)—For a "Friend of the Court," Edward Pokorny has hard theories on some legal proceedings, particularly divorce cases.

Pokorny, who has been Friend of the Court of Wayne county for the past 22 years, stoutly insists that one separation, "except in the gravest of cases," is sufficient.

So convinced is he that "divorce is becoming a habit to some people," Pokorny is formulating a law, which he plans to present to the legislature, holding the quota of divorces to one per person.

"Divorce may be the so-called safety valve of society," Pokorny said, "but there comes a time when even a good safety valve must, of necessity, be shut off."

Supporting his contention that divorce gets to be habit, Pokorny pointed to the Wayne county court records, which reveal that separations are being sanctioned at the rate of approxmately 6,000 a year. The records also show, he said, that 75 per cent of the divorced persons re-marry and some as many as three and four times.

He admits that "everybody makes mistakes" but holds that there is no justification for making these mistakes over and over at the cost of society.

Pointing to Michigan's habitual criminal law as an example of a crime deterrent, he explained that he hoped his statute would serve the same purpose.

"What we need is a divorce deterrent and our one-divorce plan may be just what we are looking for," he continued. "Exceptions will be made for adultery, but there would be safeguards such as requiring two witnesses and every effort made to prevent collusion."

He said he has thoroughly discussed his proposed bill with authorities in Milwaukee, Wis. and Cleveland, O.

SAVES FATHER

Baby's Presence Gets Dad Out of Six Fines.

SAN FRANCISCO—(INS)—You won't find a more firm believer in the majesty of the law—including traffic laws—than Municipal Judge Hugh Smith.

But nevertheless Judge Smith with a broad grin tore up six parking tags levied against George H. Reynolds.

Appearing before the judge, Reynolds shifted a blanket-wrapped bundle from one arm to the other and explained:

"I got those tags for parking over night outside my house. I'm out of work, and we haven't any garage, and I thought I'd better save every penny I could, for this . . ." He nodded at the bundle, which promptly gurgled back.

Judge Smith smiled as the tousled top of Reynolds' year-old son, George Jr., squirmed out of the blanket, and promptly tore the tags to shreds.

HURRICANE SCARS

BOSTON—(U.P.)—Massachusetts still is repairing the damage suffered in the September, 1938, hurricane that swept through New England, State Conservation Commissioner Raymond J. Kenney reports that during the past spring, 2,225,000 pine and spruce trees were planted to replace those overturned in state forests and parks.

RABBIT HUNTERS

SACRAMENTO, Cal.—(U.P.)—The California fish and game commission has ordered closed season on rabbit hunting in parts of four southern California counties — to protect quail. The commission hopes to end the practice of hunters "going out for rabbits but returning with a bag of quail."

When a wise man buries animosity he forgets where he planted it.

Sales Tax Gain in County Far Above Ohio Average.

Richland county's sales tax gain for the first week of August over the corresponding week last year was 40 per cent as compared to a state average of 16 per cent, figures compiled by the state tax department showed today.

Receipts in Richland county mounted to $12,620 for the week, an increase of $3,650 over the first week of August, 1939, and a marked gain over the final week of July.

Collections in the county to the second week of August amounted to $339,480, a gain of $50,069 over the same period last year.

Ohio's collections so far in 1940 are approximately $2,700,000 ahead of last year, State Treasurer Don H. Ebright's report showed.

THEATERS

Epic of South Seas.

The epic of the South Seas, "South of Pago Pago," showing at the Ohio, concerns the strange adventures of Bucko Larson and Ruby Taylor, who undertake an expedition to a fabulous pearl bed south of Pago Pago. Overcome by greed and lust for wealth, Larson uses all kinds of foul methods to enslave the natives so that they will dive for pearls. Through the love of Ruby for these people they are set free of Larson.

Musical Comedy Talent.

Bringing to the screen some of Hollywood's finest musical comedy talent, "The Boys From Syracuse," the Jules Levey's film version of the stage hit, is appearing at the Madison. The cast includes nine principals, and scores of dancing beauties and thousands of extras. Such stars as Rosemary Lane, Allan Jones, Irene Hervey, Charles Butterworth, Alan Mowbray, Eric Blore, Martha Raye and Joe Penner appear in this comedy romance.

* * *

Conditions In Dust Bowl Area.

"Three Faces West," stirring drama of conditions in the dust bowl areas, with an all star cast including John Wayne, Sigrid Gurie, Charles Coburn and others, is showing at the Park. This is a first run picture depicting a present-day community in the Middle West where there is no doctor to combat the poverty and disease of desolate people. The co-feature is "Mexicali Rose," with Gene Autry in the leading role.

Deanna Sings Many Songs.

Deanna Durbin, Kay Francis, Lewis Howard and Walter Pidgeon have the leading roles in the picture "It's a Date," which is showing at the Ritz. The story begins on Broadway, moves speedily to Maine and finally to Hawaii. Deanna sings several new songs, "Love Is All," "Ave Maria," "Musetta's Street Song," "Loch Lomond," "It Happened In Kaloha," "Gypsy Lullaby" and "Rhythm of the Islands." The co-feature is "Dr. Cyclops," a technicolor film.

RESOLUTION NO. 40-115

By Mr. Berg.

Declaring it necessary to improve Walter Avenue from Sturges Avenue to Wood Street by grading the street and paving the roadway with concrete, brick, block, sheet asphalt or other suitable material and constructing the necessary curbing, headers, storm drainage, etc.

Be it Resolved by the Council of the City of Mansfield, State of Ohio, Three-Fourths of all Members elected thereunto concurring

Sec. 1. That it is necessary to improve Walter Avenue from Sturges Avenue to Wood Street by grading the street and paving the roadway with concrete, brick, block, sheet asphalt or other suitable material and constructing the necessary curbing, headers, storm drainage, etc.

Sec. 2. That the grade of said street as improved shall be the established grade; and that the grade of the curbs shall be as established.

Sec. 3. That the plans, specifications, estimates and profiles of the proposed improvement heretofore prepared by the City Civil Engineer and now on file in the office of the Department of Public Service, be and the same are hereby approved

Sec. 4. That the whole cost of said improvement, less the cost of intersections and one-fiftieth of the total cost shall be assessed by the foot front upon the following described lots and lands, to-wit; all lots and lands bounding and abutting upon the proposed improvement which said lots and lands are hereby determined to be specifically benefitted by said improvement, and the cost of said improvement shall include the expense of printing, publishing and serving the necessary legal notices, the printing and publishing of the necessary resolutions and ordinances, the cost of construction and inspection together with interest on bonds issued in anticipation of the collection of deferred assessments and all other necessary expenditures

Sec. 5. That the assessments so to be levied shall be paid in five annual installments, with interest on deferred payments at the same rate as to be borne by the bonds to be issued therefor, provided that the owner of any property assessed may, at his option, pay such assessment in cash within thirty days from and after the passage of the assessing ordinance in which case said cash assessment shall not include any item of interest upon bonds to be issued in anticipation of the collection of deferred installments of assessments

Sec. 6. That bonds of the City of Mansfield shall be issued in anticipation of the collection of assessments by installments and in an amount equal thereto

Sec. 7. That the remainder of the entire cost of said improvement not specially assessed, including the cost of intersections together with the cost of any real estate or interest therein purchased or appropriated, and the cost and expense of any appropriation proceeding therefor and the damages awarded any owner of adjoining or abutting lands and interest therein and the cost and expense of such award shall be paid by the City of Mansfield Ohio in the manner provided by law

Sec. 8. This resolution shall take effect and be in force from and after the earliest period allowed by law.

Passed August 6, 1940

GIRL ARRESTED ON BEER SALE

Signed Statement on Age Used as Evidence In Ashland Case.

ASHLAND — Warnings of the police drive being started on the sale of liquor and beer to minors were given to local stores, etc., several weeks ago.

The first arrest was made by the sheriff's department when a 19-year-old Savannah girl was taken into custody for giving false information concerning her age for the purpose of buying beer.

The girl signed a statement in a local cafe that she was 21 and could legally buy beer. The statement is held by the sheriff's department as a basis for an affidavit against the girl.

A minor, aged 17 also, was apprehended by police.

ORDINANCE NO. 40-133

By Mr. Berg.

An ordinance determining to proceed with the improvement of south side of Park Avenue West and Glenbeck Lane, to-wit: South side of Park Avenue West from sanitary sewer in Linden Road west a distance of 1100 feet more or less; and Glenbeck Lane from Park Avenue West to south end of Glenbeck Lane by the construction of 10 inch and 8 inch sanitary sewers and authorizing the issuance and sale of bonds to pay for said improvement.

Be it ordained by the Council of the City of Mansfield, State of Ohio, Three-fourths of all the members elected thereto concurring:

Sec. 1. That it is hereby determined to proceed with the improvement of South side of Park Avenue West and Glenbeck Lane, to-wit: South side of Park Avenue West from sanitary sewer in Linden Road west a distance of 1100 feet more or less; and Glenbeck Lane from Park Avenue West to south end of Glenbeck Lane by the construction of 10 inch and 8 inch sanitary sewers in accordance with Resolution No. 40-91 passed June 25th, 1940 and in accordance with the plans, specifications, estimates and profiles of said improvement heretofore approved and now on file in the office of the Department of Public Service of said city.

Sec. 2. That all claims for damages resulting therefrom shall be judicially inquired into after completion of the proposed improvement.

Sec. 3. That the whole cost of said improvement, less one-fiftieth of the total cost shall be assessed in proportion to the benefits resulting from the improvement upon the lots and lands bounding and abutting upon the proposed improvement, and the remaining portion of the cost of said proposed improvement shall be paid by the City of Mansfield, Ohio.

That to provide a fund for the payment of the portion of the cost and expense for which special assessments are authorized to be levied for the improvement of Park Avenue West and Glenbeck Lane as aforesaid, the Mayor and Auditor be and they are hereby authorized to issue, advertise for sale and sell according to law Three Thousand Seven Hundred ($3700.00) Dollars of Street Assessment Bonds of the City of Mansfield, Ohio, in denominations of from 50 to 1000 Dollars each, payable in from One to three years, and bearing interest at the same rate as to be borne by the bonds to be issued therefor, payable semi-annually.

That to provide a fund to pay that portion of the cost of said improvement which has to be paid by the City of Mansfield, Ohio to-wit: $74.00 to be taken from the proper classification within the General Fund.

And the proceeds thereof shall be applied to the payment of the cost and expense of said improvement as aforesaid, and to no other purpose whatsoever.

An annual levy shall be made during the term of said bonds in an amount sufficient to pay the interest on the same and to provide a sinking fund for their redemption as they mature.

Sec. 4. That the following lots and lands shall be assessed for said improvement as above determined. All the lots and lands bounding and abutting upon said improvement on South side of Park Avenue West between Linden Road and Glenbeck Lane and Glenbeck Lane from Park Avenue West to end of Glenbeck Lane

Sec. 5. That upon the sale of said bonds the proceeds thereof, together with the moneys received, if any, from the cash payments of assessments, shall be placed in the City Treasury; the accrued interest and premiums shall be placed to the credit of the sinking fund, and the remaining portion of the purchase price of said bonds shall be placed to the credit of Park Ave. west & Glenbeck Lane street improvement fund and disbursed upon proper vouchers in payment of the cost and expense of the improvement aforesaid and all moneys coming into said Park Ave. West & Glenbeck Lane street improvement fund are hereby appropriated for the purpose of said assessments.

Sec. 6. That the Director of Public Service be and he is hereby authorized and directed to advertise for bids and to make and execute a contract for said improvement with the lowest and best bidder according to law.

Sec. 7. This ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after the earliest period allowed by law.

30 Days On Vendol Made Big Change In Mansfield Lady

Tried for Years to Find Right Medicine to Relieve Troubles Due to Constipation. Feels Fine Now, Advises Everyone Try Vendol.

MRS. RUTH CULP

"Constipation was causing me a lot of troubles. I had to take strong medicine for relief but seemed these things left me more constipated all the time," says Mrs. Ruth Culp of 99 East Fourth street, Mansfield.

"There were not many days that I didn't suffer from dizziness, headaches and spots swimming before my eyes. I didn't eat heavy meals but what I did, lay heavy in my stomach and would often come back so sour it burned like fire. My stomach felt tight and swollen after meals and the gas felt at times like it would shut off my breath. Most all my muscles felt sore and stiff and my joints were full of pains. Cramping pains in my legs were so bad some nights I'd get up and walk the floor and had frequent calls from my kidneys.

"Vendol brought the most satisfying relief from constipation that I had never found, then all these annoying troubles gradually went away and today I'm like a different person. I can eat anything I want even pork and other things I didn't dare touch before. My sleep is restful so that I get up every morning ready for the day's work. I began taking Vendol a month ago and wish I had started sooner. I give full credit to Vendol and advise everyone suffering like I did to begin at once on this excellent medicine."

Vendol is sold by most all leading druggists here and is especially recommended by Central Drug store, corner Main and Fourth streets.

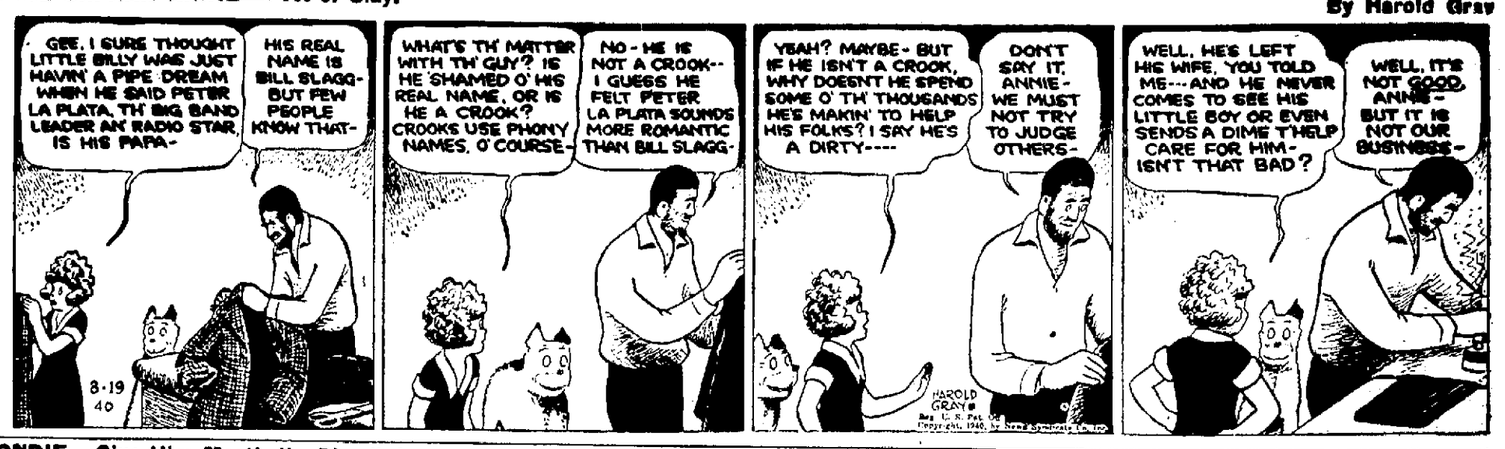
LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE—Feet of Clay. By Harold Gray



GEE, I SURE THOUGHT LITTLE BILLY WAS JUST HAVIN' A PIPE DREAM WHEN HE SAID PETER LA PLATA, TH' BIG BAND LEADER AN' RADIO STAR, IS HIS PAPA-
HIS REAL NAME IS BILL SLAGG- BUT FEW PEOPLE KNOW THAT-
8-19 40
WHAT'S TH' MATTER WITH TH' GUY? IS HE SHAMED O' HIS REAL NAME, OR IS HE A CROOK? CROOKS USE PHONY NAMES, O' COURSE-
NO - HE IS NOT A CROOK-- I GUESS HE FELT PETER LA PLATA SOUNDS MORE ROMANTIC THAN BILL SLAGG-
YEAH? MAYBE - BUT IF HE ISN'T A CROOK, WHY DOESN'T HE SPEND SOME O' TH' THOUSANDS HE'S MAKIN' TO HELP HIS FOLKS? I SAY HE'S A DIRTY----
DON'T SAY IT, ANNIE - WE MUST NOT TRY TO JUDGE OTHERS-
WELL, HE'S LEFT HIS WIFE, 'YOU TOLD ME---AND HE NEVER COMES TO SEE HIS LITTLE BOY OR EVEN SENDS A DIME THELP CARE FOR HIM- ISN'T THAT BAD?

MART TRADERS WAIT FURTHER EUROPEAN NEWS

Buy Few Stocks Today, But Aren't Getting Bullish; Bonds Mixed.

(By Associated Press)

NEW YORK — Stock market traders bought a few shares here and there today but the inclination of most was to await further war developments before getting too bullish.

Ahead at one time or another were U. S. Steel, Republic Steel, Montgomery Ward, Boeing, Westinghouse, Eastman Kodak, Kennecott and International Paper preferred.

Bonds and commodities were narrowly mixed.

Boardrooms scanned the survey of the magazine "Steel" which said that "a small decline in buying of some products compared with a month ago loses significance in view of heavy backlogs and prospects of rising consumption in various directions the next few weeks."

Encouraging were forecasts in merchandising centers that retail sales, if maintained through the remainder of the year, probably would exceed any other 12-months' stretch since 1930.

Attack-Slaying Of 7-Year-Old Girl Confessed

KANSAS CITY, Mo.—(AP)—The county prosecutor today filed murder charges against James A. Butts, a 43-year-old WPA worker who confessed to police that he attacked and beat to death Mary Margaret Macmhoudi, 7.

Butts told police that he had sold a battery for 70 cents Saturday, took a holiday and "bought a bottle." The girl was going to the grocery for her mother when he met her. He said she followed him off the road into a vacant lot.

She asked me for a nickel, and I told her that it would be worth a kiss," Butts told police.

He said he beat her with a stone, then choked her until she stopped breathing.

Good Gulf...what a jump!

Yes, sir . . . the New Good Gulf tops the old mark by plenty! The high jumper at left gives you a picture of the former high anti-knock quality of the Old Good Gulf. The basis of measurement is the scientific anti-knock quality test used by us and many of our competitors. Now . . . look how the New Good Gulf, at right, clears the much higher anti-knock bar. What a difference that big boost in Good Gulf will make in your car!

No-Nox...you've broken your record!

Believe us . . . this jump in No-Nox's anti-knock quality—at no increase in price—has amazed more than one fuel-wise expert! Because No-Nox was already KNOCK-PROOF under all normal driving conditions! But the pole vaulters tell the story. Gulf engineers achieved a real improvement . . . turned out a new super-fuel. The New No-Nox beats even the Old No-Nox's record . . . is far, far ahead of any regular gasoline sold anywhere in America! NO REGULAR GASOLINE—NOT ONE—CAN COMPARE WITH GULF NO-NOX!

F.D.R. DEMANDS QUICK ACTION FOR NEW PACT

Sets Thursday Deadline For Department Moves on Canadian Defense.

Roosevelt and Prime Minister W. L. MacKenzie King of Canada, in a railroad car near the border, inducts the army and navy high comman dinto a new era of defense planning, in which they must think in terms of all of North America and not merely the continental United States and its possessions.

The joint board on North American defense, to be set up immediately, will have a maximum of 10 members, evenly divided between the United States and Canada. A majority of United States members will come from the army and navy.

"The prime minister and the president have discussed the mutual problems of defense in relation to the safety of Canada and the United States," their statement said. "It has been agreed that a permanent joint board on defense shall be set up at once by the two countries.

"This permanent joint board on defense shall commence immediate studies relating to sea, land and air problems including personnel and material.

"It will consider in the broad sense the defense of the north half of the western hemisphere.

"The permanent joint board on defense will consist of four or five members from each country, most of them from the services. It will meet shortly."

Mr. Roosevelt is expected, shortly, to follow the Canadian agreement with an announcement that the United States is about to buy or lease key British possessions in this hemisphere for establishment of new naval and air bases.

Negotiations toward this objective with Prime Minister Winston Churchill of Great Britain are in progress and Mr. Churchill has indicated his willingness to permit this country access to virtually any of Britain's bases from New Foundland to British Guinea.

Mr. Roosevelt concluded the agreement with Mr. King in an overnight conference aboard his special train at Heuvelton, N. Y., on the Canadian border. The meeting occurred amid national guardsmen and regular army troops massed on the Canadian border for first army war games.

The compact seals the 22 nations of the new world against aggression from beyond the seas. Canada had not been a party to the Pan-American agreements at Havana and elsewhere in which the United States and the other 20 republics of the western hemisphere created machinery to meet any emergency.

Leaders Doubtful Of Destroyer Aid

WASHINGTON — (INS) — Congressional leaders doubted today that sufficient strength could be mustered in congress to pass an enabling act for the transfer of over-age American destroyers to Great Britain.

Despite their expressed sympathy for the British and their pleas for American warcraft, the leaders of both parties said American transfer of fighting craft would be "an act of war."

Meanwhile, the opposition to President Roosevelt's reported plan to ask congress authorize the sale of 50 obsolete World war destroyers to England, disclosed that the American navy is badly in need of ships, particularly destroyers. They said Admiral Harold Stark, chief of naval operations, made this statement before a secret session of the house naval affairs committee recently.

The disclosure bolstered reports that the navy department is firmly opposed to sale of the destroyers.

Chairman Sumners (D) Tex. of the house judiciary committee, opposed the sale as "virtually a declaration of war," while Chairman Vinson (D) Ga. of the house naval affairs committee said he would introduce legislation to accomplish [illegible] I am asked to do [illegible]

WAIVER SIGNED BY BRIDEGROOM

Freedom Given Up in Favor of Marriage License.

KANSAS CITY (AP)- A couple appeared before James A. Kilmer, deputy recorder of deeds, for a marriage license but before she accepted it the bride said firmly:

"My husband has to sign this oath before we get a license and I wish you 'authorities' would witness it."

The oath: "I do hereby promise my wife I won't go out at night after we are married. I will not play cards x x x I will only call on women when accompanied by my wife. I will not drink any more than my wife allows. I will let her be boss in every way."

The bridegroom signed.

ITALY CLAIMS BRITISH LEAVE

Evacuation of Somaliland Port of Berbera By English Reported.

main action to Italians and natives are engaging only in subsidiary fighting."

At the same time these sources said that nine British planes were brought down during an air raid against Bardia on the Libyan coast.

They added that a fleet of British ships, including four cruisers, eight destroyers and one aircraft carrier, was sighted Aug. 16 by Italian planes returning from a reconnaissance flight over Alexandria. The British vessels were bombed all day but escaped under protection of bad weather. They were sighted at dawn the next day when the bombing of Bardia began, authorities said.

Virginio Gayda, authoritative fascist spokesman, claimed Italian troops already were within 25 miles of the strategic British Somaliland capital and were rapidly overcoming bitter British resistance.

Defending forces, Gayda wrote, are desperately improvising defense works.

Italian mountain artillery has a range of less than four miles, Gayda pointed out, adding that British naval guns in Berbera harbor could hurl their shells more than 12 miles.

"Nevertheless," he said, "it is quite certain that the days and hours of British defense are numbered.

"Italian operations in Somaliland are not confined to the present approaching conquest of Berbera itself, but extend to a more vast and resolute plan, the effects of which will be speedily visible."

Ships toward which the British are retreating are being subjected to continuous aerial bombardment, the communique said.

British air raids on Milan, Turin and other Italian centers were announced by the communique, which indicated no important damage was caused.

"In British Somaliland," said the bulletin, "after breaking through the second enemy defense line and conquering and surpassing LaFaruk, Italian troops followed the enemy retreating toward ships, which in turn were bombed continually by Italian aviation.

"One enemy plane was brought down by Italian pursuit planes.

"An enemy air raid on Cassala caused no victims and and no damages. Another enemy air raid on the air field at Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, killed two persons and wounded five in hangars in which some old material was hit.

"In North Africa Italian aviation efficaciously bombed the port and airfield equipment at Sidi Barrani and an encampment of motorized units southeast of Sollum.

"During an enemy air raid on Milan three bombs hit civilian homes and others fell on an open field. At Cuneo and Turin there were insignificant damages and no victims. Leaflets were [illegible] on Urbisaglia."

ANALYZE MAJOR FACTORS IN NAZI WAR TRIUMPHS

Sympathizers in Countries That Fell as Vital as Tanks, Planes, Say Writers.

(Editor's Note: The following is the first in a series of articles made public by Secretary of Navy Frank Knox in connection with the national defense program. The articles, described by Secretary Knox as a "most thoroughgoing survey of German 'fifth column' methods used in weakening resistance of possible enemies and undermining the morale of countries they propose to attack," were prepared by Col. William J. Donovan and Edgar Mowrer.)

By COL. WILLIAM J. DONOVAN AND EDGAR MOWRER

Adolf Hitler's blitz-conquests of Poland, of Norway, of Belgium, Holland, Luxemburg, and France are military masterpieces.

In all secrecy and with incredible speed the Nazi leader built up a unique military machine, beside which all other armies in the world were obsolete. Basing his organization upon experience acquired in Spain during the civil war, Hitler placed at the head of his mobilized masses a modern "airplane plus tank" spearhead. The German masses were not particularly impressive. It was the spearhead of 50,000 men that beat France.

To his superior striking power the Nazi leader added surprise and audacity. Equipping dive bombers with noise makers sounds childish, but against green troops it worked.

Yet no amount of genius would have accomplished what the Germans accomplished in so short a time without two other elements. These were the Germans abroad and sympathizers in the victim countries.

Everyone understands the role played by the Sudeten Germans in the destruction of Czechoslovakia. While claiming to be loyal citizens of the new state, an active minority of the Germans was really working for its destruction.

As in Czechoslovakia, so in Poland. There a tiny minority, probably about a million in all, while claiming to be loyal to Warsaw, were preparing to stab Poland in the back. Directed by the German Gestapo, organized into political groups, the Deutsche Vereinigung and the Young German party, the minority leaders found means of terrorizing or otherwise inducing practically all the Germans to become spies and agents. Some 10,000 were actually trained in special camps in Germany to be forerunners, agents and guides to the invading army columns.

The Germans were more quickly informed of the Polish military movements than the Polish commanders.

On the eve of the war these specially coached Germans, acting under direct orders from Berlin, picked quarrels with Poles in order to create frontier and other "incidents." Other Germans disguised as Polish soldiers spread panic through the villages. Germans speaking Polish issued false instructions and orders to the people by wireless. Still others remained deep behind the lines and from there signalled objectives and instructions to German airmen.

Germans have admitted that two weeks more of resistance by the Polish armies would have exhausted the German blitz units and made a long and exhaustive campaign necessary.

Practically no Germans lived in Norway. But if the Norwegians had been suspicious of all Germans, including German visitors, Norway might not be occupied today.

Trondheim, Bergen and Stavenger, with air fields whose possession later enabled the Germans to fight off the Allies, fell to attacks by German soldiers hidden in the holds of merchant ships anchored in the fjords or moored off the quayside.

There is no evidence that the Germans in Denmark took any considerable part in the actual German conquest of that country. It is certain, however, that German agitators in Schlesvig, numerous German agents in Copenhagen disguised as newspaper men, business men and diplomats, by their constant threats and interference with the Danish government, had produced a state of mind bordering on terror that contributed to drive any thought of real resistance from the Danish mind.

Germans hidden in barges seized the Moordyke bridge in Holland, which enabled the German invaders to turn the Dutch defenses from the south. This was decisive.

But 120,000 German residents in the little country occupied a considerable share of the Dutch armed forces and made conquest that much easier. They occupied their leisure in propaganda and espionage for the Nazis. Fifty or a hundred so-called newspapermen spent most of their time wandering the country bent on strategic and economic research.

When Hitler finally struck, the 120,000 turned on their placid hosts and, where they could, shot them down.

Practically all produced red identification cards which procured them the respect and cooperation of the German officers. In Rotterdam they utilized private wireless senders supplied by the Nazi party. Everywhere they served as guides and advisors for parachutists.

The 60,000 Germans living in Belgium do not seem to have taken any particular part in the treasonable failure to destroy the bridges over the Albert Canal, Belgium's first and chief line of defense, thanks to which both Belgium and Holland were doomed to easy conquests. There was no need for them. The thousands of dissatisfied Flemings of the Dinase (Dietsche National Solidaristen) and the members of Leon Degrelle's Rexist party saw to that. But the 60,000 reinforced by the usual diplomatic, newspaper, artistic and business propaganda and espionage corps from Germany, played a powerful part in building up and financing these treasonable Belgian organizations. The astounding decision of King Albert to surrender in full battle cannot be ascribed to purely Belgian influences.

Nor, in France, would the decision of Petain, Weygand, Baudoin and Laval to lay down their arms and seek salvation in French submission to the Nazis have been possible without the long and tireless activity in that country of such German "intellectuals" as Fredrich Sieburg and Otto Abetz, recent Nazi appointee to the German ambassadorship at Vichey.

There was no chance for the Germans in Great Britain to show their hand. In the first place Britain's island situation saved it from any surprise attack. And secondly, the British secret service had, for a long time, been fully aware of the dangers.

SECRETARY FOR HEALTH URGED

American Medical Association Wants New Member Added to Cabinet.

CHAUTAUQUA, N. Y. (U.P.)—Inclusion of a secretary of health in the cabinet is urged by Dr Nathan Van Etten of New York, president of the American Medical association.

Addressing a group of physicians at Chautauqua Institute, Dr VanEtten slashed at what he called "amateur philosophers and log-rolling politicians whose superficial humanitarianism has been stimulated by job-seeking welfare agencies."

Reviewing advances in American medical technique during the past century, Dr. VanEtten recalled that Bismarck and Lloyd George both had set up compulsory health insurance as a means of gaining the support of their peoples. He admitted that the time was "more than ripe" for a national health program, but urged that it be established with the utmost care by skilled professional men.

"I would like to see a new national department to be known as the Department of Health headed by a secretary who must have had a medical education and be licensed to practice medicine," he declared.

Referring to national budgeting for health, Dr. VanEtten attacked the "stratosphere extravagances" of the Wagner Health act and similar "excursions into Utopia."

"I believe that needs for health should be discovered in the smallest political subdivision such as the school district, then referred to the township, to the county, to the state, to the federal authority in that order and that the federal authority should be called upon as infrequently as possible," he said.

The medical leader also urged local physicians to realize their responsibilities in seeing to it that an eventual health program be professionally-sound rather than merely politically-expedient.

SKUNKS RABID

New Reason For Avoiding Animals Advanced.

McCONNELSVILLE — (INS) — Stay away from skunks!

That is the accustomed warning but in Morgan county, it has a double meaning.

Besides the odoriferous risk, persons who go near the polecat are risking the chance of getting Rabies. Dr. C. E. Northrup, county health commissioner, reported recently that a cow became diseased after being bitten by a skunk.

Previously a rabies outbreak had been reported among gray foxes of the district. Many sheep have been killed after being attacked by rabid foxes.

Mansfield's Outstanding Cleaner

NEWSPAPERARCHIVE®

Mansfield News-Journal

AN INDEPENDENT NEWSPAPER

MANSFIELD, OHIO, MONDAY, AUGUST 19, 1940.

Solution of the farm problem is one that can't be found in the back of the book.

Just when civilization seems to be advancing Human Nature applies the brakes.

Sunday, September 8, has been suggested by President Roosevelt as a day for prayers for peace—thus allowing several weeks for practice.

Starvation for Nazi Victims

THE DEPTHS to which Nazi Germany has sunk in its effort to conquer the world are incredible to any people of honorable minds. But it does seem as if the bottom had been reached in the matter of food for the conquered nations.

Germany took over by force of arms the countries of western Europe. One by one she looted them of their food for the present and for next winter. She made it impossible for them to feed themselves. A good many Germans were getting restive under their forced rationing for the benefit of their army—it seemed time enough to the leaders to get in a little more food for their own winter.

So the Germans will not starve. Their reserves have been added to by the food of Norway, Denmark, Holland, Belgium, Luxembourg and France.

Now Germany expects the Americas to feed the hungry people whose food she has stolen. If America yields to the pressure of these pleas, she will undermine the power of the British blockade, lengthen the war and create more suffering over greater space and longer time than if she puts the matter squarely up to Germany. The Nazi flag flies over all these countries. The Nazi Gestapo everywhere does its dastardly work. Let the Nazis, then, share their food as well as their flags. It is their responsibility.

General Hospital and the Public

THOSE who are old enough to recall the fine enthusiasm with which the hospital campaign was carried through in Mansfield twenty-five years ago cannot fail to be distressed by an occasional discordant note that has been struck in connection with the operation of this essential community institution.

As will be remembered, Mansfield has never before or since conducted a money-raising campaign that met with such quick and generous response as did the one which resulted in the purchase of a site and erection of Mansfield General hospital.

It was the idea of the people of Mansfield then, as it is now, that a community hospital, provided through voluntary public subscriptions, could be made to better serve the city's requirement for hospitalization of the sick and injured than an institution sponsored by private capital and expected to return a profit.

Those who contributed to the original hospital campaign, as well as others who have made later gifts, have regarded the hospital as a service institution, with no thought that the element of profit would enter into its operation.

There is realization, of course, that proper operation of a hospital, with adequate equipment and capable personnel, involves high costs and it is assumed that persons who are able to pay are willing to do so. It is also recognized, however, that there are some cases in which instant emergency attention is required by persons who are unable to show immediate ability to pay and it seems reasonable to believe that in an institution such as Mansfield General hospital, first thought should be given to relief of suffering and possible saving of lives, rather than "who is to be responsible for the hospital bill."

Service in any capacity in a hospital requires tact, diplomacy and common sense, together with sympathetic understanding of the interest of the people of Mansfield in THEIR hospital. Any other attitude on the part of persons associated with the hospital in either a managerial or clerical capacity is inexcusable.

Those Narrow Roads In England

AN INTERESTING evidence of returning confidence in England is the announcement that road barriers are being removed. These blocks and traps of steel and concrete were hastily built on highways two or three months ago when there was fear of imminent invasion. So effectively have the British people prepared themselves for that invasion that they want to keep the highways open for their own use. The most important thing now is the mobility of their troops and equipment.

Perhaps the British authorities in the first place overestimated the value of their thoroughfares to anybody but themselves. American tourists have found those charming roads so narrow and winding, and so concealed by trees and hills, that most of them must be quite hard to distinguish from a mile or two up in the air.

On the other hand, the British air force is helped greatly by the long, straight, wide military highways built in Germany by the Nazi government, between important places. It may be those German roads, as much as English marksmanship, that enable the British bombers to wreak such havoc in Germany.

French Labor's Plight

THE four million workers of the French General Confederation of Labor have met the fate of workers in the original totalitarian countries. Leon Jouhaux, their leader and not long ago one of the most powerful men in France, is in retirement and may be fortunate if he is not deprived of liberty as well as power.

What has happened in France is what happened to Labor in Italy and Germany and Russia. There is only one union in those countries. It is a "company union" and the government is the company. To try to take up a grievance with "the boss," to go on strike, or to demonstrate in any way against low pay or long hours is treason.

It would be well if all Americans at this time developments thoughtfully and without "class" bias. There are vital lessons to be learned by capital, labor, consumer groups, and public officials in America.

The United States senate, sometimes referred to as an "august body," should at least keep in mind that this is the month for it.

A story is going the rounds about a high school senior who started shaving four years ago—and cut himself both times.

A Mississippi newspaper confidently predicts that no postmasters will be listed among this year's Democratic bolters.

Listen, World!

What Happened To American Frankness, Free Will and Fair Play?

—By ELSIE ROBINSON

LISTEN, NEIGHBOR—You've envied this job of mine. All right—it's yours! Right now. With a bonus. For it certainly has me behind the eight ball, with no way out. The reason is a pile of letters. Several hundred letters, all written by American young people from thirteen to thirty. All asking me to tell them about the recent Democratic convention. And I don't know what to tell.

Yes, I went to that Convention. And I had my nose in every crook and cranny of it. But the more I saw, the less I want to say. For I've seen something I'm going to be mad at, and be ashamed of, for the rest of my days. And if I tell those youngsters the truth, I may break something fine in them that nothing can repair. And if I don't tell it—I'll feel like a piker always.

Before we go further, get this straight. I'm not a political writer. I'm not even interested in politics—as such. People are my speciality. Theoretically, I'm a Democrat. But if people can be kept busy, healthy and happy, I'll give my vote to any man who puts the deal across, whatever his party.

However, I'm touchy on just one point, and that point means more to me than any amount of pleasure or prosperity. It just happens that I'm an American and I'm strong for American methods. I may not be versed in certain technical shinanigans, but I'm pretty familiar with frankness, free will and fair play, and I don't want to have anything to do with any deal that doesn't smell of either. Which is why I'm so mad about that Democratic Convention that I still see red.

FOR IT WASN'T FRANK . . . AND IT WASN'T FAIR . . . AND THERE WAS JUST ABOUT AS MUCH FREE WILL ABOUT IT AS THERE ARE FEATHERS ON A FISH.

Mind you, I'm not naming names. What I'm kicking about is the way they got those names. And I'd feel the same if St. Peter and St. Paul had been running. Never has this country seen a more discreditable performance.

THE ENTIRE SELECTION AND NOMINATION OF THE PRESENT CANDIDATES WAS UTTERLY UNAMERICAN AND UNDEMOCRATIC. IT WAS DICTATED FROM START TO FINISH AND RAMMED DOWN THE DELEGATES' THROATS WHETHER THEY LIKED IT OR NOT . . . AND STALIN HIMSELF COULD NOT HAVE PERPETRATED A MORE RUTHLESS PIECE OF POLITICAL LOG-ROLLING.

There is nothing subtle in this analysis and there was nothing subtle in the spectacle. Nobody needed to listen at keyholes or mezzanines anyone for tips. The whole set-up was there in full view, for anyone to see, and if you didn't like it you could just go skin a grape.

As a matter of fact, about twenty thousand people, including a lot of flopping mad delegates, didn't like it and said so with all their tonsils. Never has any convention heard a leader, better or more prolonged demonstration of boos, roars, blats, bleats, howls, hisses, screams and downright bellraisin'. It wasn't the nominees they objected to so much, though they were certainly plenty inarticulate about Secretary Wallace.

But it was the way the nomination was being conducted. These duly elected delegates were being handled like a lot of Russian robots and they knew it. Their backs were up, and they resented it. And they showed it. Did it do them any good? Yes it did—NOT. They might as well have stayed at home and blown a tin whistle.

IF THAT WAS A VOTE BY ACCLAMATION, THEN I'M SALLY RAND!

* * *

AND Eleanor Roosevelt didn't make it any better. I hesitate to mention this for I like that lady. I truly believe she has a good heart and considerable sense, even if she does use a broad A. But I'm still constitutionally adverse to seeing female wives barge in on their husband's business and tell American voters what to do and what they'll be if they don't do it. If Franklin Roosevelt was too busy to come, which he well might have been, he could have sent one of the boys. Or just let the voters do their own thinking—for a change.

There is the truth about the Democratic Convention. As a political survey it is probably punk. But as a warning to the voters of these United States it should be as obvious and potent as public pig-sticking. We have come, it is true, to hazardous times. But no hazard can be as great, or as tragic in its results, as such arrogant contempt for American liberty of thought and action.

I have seen a terrible thing. I have seen the people of these United States lassooed, branded, dehorned, led to the trough and made to drink. And so help me, God of my Fathers, I'd rather die beneath Hitler's bombs than be framed like that by my own kith and kin.

ELSIE ROBINSON.

Wide Variety of American Hobbies

The great national pastime is collecting objects, from match boxes to old masters, while photography has become public hobby No. 2. The hobby habits of America have expanded into a list of more than 240 avocations, with the trend toward more realism and practicality, in keeping with this modern world.

These are facts developed through a survey conducted by the Saturday Evening Post. Replies to the question on hobbies showed that 31 per cent of Post readers are collectors of one or more of a list of 180 different objects of curiosity, with 21 per cent being primarily interested in photography. The amateur gardeners rank third and then come enthusiasts in woodworking and literature, totaling 8 per cent, needle work and music with 5 and 4 per cent, respectively, and art a little less than 4 per cent.

In the hobby field of collecting things, stamps are the most popular objects. Coins rank second, but far behind numerically. Americans also collect dolls, antiques, match box covers, Indian items, pictures, maps, vases, shells, clocks, poems, spoons and things valuable and otherwise. Autographs, strange to say, rank far down on the list.

Washington Merry-Go-Round

Hitler Urged to 'Appease' U. S. Until After November Election

—By DREW PEARSON and ROBERT S. ALLEN

WASHINGTON—The man who handles American relations inside the Nazi government is Dr. Hans Dieckhoff, former ambassador to the United States and one of the ablest diplomats ever to operate in Washington.

Dr. Dieckhoff is the brother-in-law of Foreign Minister von Ribbentrop and also served as a lieutenant during the World war with General Wilhelm Keitel, chief of staff, so has no trouble in getting his views across to Hitler.

According to diplomatic information received here, wise Ambassador Dieckhoff passed the word to Hitler last winter not to answer any of the speeches or statements made by Roosevelt or any leaders of the Roosevelt administration. To do so, he advised, would merely arouse the American people.

He also pointed out that this was an election year in the United States, when the public was more concerned with domestic politics than anything else, and that if Hitler ignored the United States and went out of his way to be conciliatory, there would be little danger of American intervention.

In accord with this policy, no statements have come from Hitler regarding the United States except the very conciliatory interviews given to Karl von Wiegand, in which Hitler emphasized the point that Germany had no interest in the Western Hemisphere.

* * *

Mysterious Dr. Westrick.

AMBASSADOR DIECKHOFF is reported also to have advised that after the war was over, the United States would be among the first to want to do business with Germany, and the operations of Dr. Gerhard Westrick, now famous Nazi commercial counselor, appear to be in conformity with that policy.

According to New York businessmen with whom Dr. Westrick talked, he was preaching the idea, as early as last spring, that Germany would be ready to do business with the United States by Sept. 15. When New York businessmen laughed at the idea that the war would be over by that time, Dr. Westrick is quoted as saying:

"I am not a military man, so I can't discuss these things. But the people who ought to know in Berlin tell me that we can do business after Sept. 15."

This was last spring, and New York businessmen told him to come back after Sept. 15.

Later, when Norway, Denmark, Holland, Belgium and France, one by one, fell a victim to Hitler, business leaders began to think twice regarding Dr. Westrick's proposals.

* * *

Appeasement In Wind.

DR. WESTRICK'S argument has been that after the war is over Germany will need the United States, and the United States will need Germany. The two countries can co-operate. Hitler will rule all of Europe, and if the United States wants access to this vast market, it had best see things the Nazi way. Furthermore, Germany needs the benefits of American peacetime industry, while the United States has no need to develop a war industry in which Germany already is so proficient.

Although Dr. Westrick is now slated to leave the country, reports from Wall Street indicate that a considerable amount of business appeasement is in the wind.

Note—Torkild Rieber, who resigned as head of the Texas Oil company because of his friendship with Dr. Westrick, was a lot closer to the Nazi-Fascist groups than leaked out. As early as March 17 this column quoted one of his conversations with War Minister Goering. Also when General Franco's agents, Colonel Antonio Sanz Agero, was in the United States, Captain Rieber, lent him an automobile, just as he did Westrick. Later he also gave the Spanish Fascist's son a job in Venezuela working with the Texas Oil company.

* * *

More Nepotism.

IN REPORTING recently on the nepotism activities of William H. McReynolds, member of the White House secretariat, the Washington Merry-Go-Round failed to mention that Mr. McReynolds, in addition to a daughter in a cushy government job, also has a son-in-law, and the father of his son-in-law drawing government salaries. All together they draw $20,200 from the government.

Mr. McReynolds is on civil service and has been in the government most of his life. He used to be in the treasury department, and while there his daughter, Mrs. John Holmead, was given a job in the treasury at $2,000. Also her husband, John Holmead, jr., was given a job in the procurement division of the treasury at $3,200.

Later Mr. McReynolds joined the White House staff, and also became secretary of the National Defense Council. Then his daughter transferred to the National Defense Council with a neat salary boost up to $4,800. One of Mrs. Holmead's friends is V. J. McKnight, who worked in the treasury at $2,900. And shortly after her transfer, she helped him take advantage of the new national defense needs by transferring to the National Defense Commission at a nice salary boost to $3,200.

Mr. McReynolds used to work in the Farm Credit Administration. There Mr. John Holmead, sr., still works at a salary of $2,200.

Here is the sum total of the earnings:

McReynold	$10,000
Mrs. Holmead, his daughter	$ 3,800
Mr. Holmead, her husband	$ 3,200
Mr. Holmead, her father-in-law	$ 2,200
Total for family	$19,200

Note—Mr. Sidney Sherwood, assistant secretary of the National Defense Council, when questioned about these salaries said: "You are injuring the important problem of national defense when you ask about this. Ours is a strictly confidential agency, and we cannot divulge information to the press." Mr. McReynolds is Sherwood's boss. McReynolds, incidentally, is a Republican.

Watching Trends

—By JACK STINNETT

WASHINGTON — Answering the mail orders:

Mrs. K. L. T., Spokane, Wash.—The excerpts from the letter of your missionary friend in China are interesting, but grim and horrible. I am sorry I cannot pass them along to the readers of this column. I would be the last one to deny that inaccuracies occasionaly creep into these paragraphs, but they would be far greater if I relaxed the rule against setting down reports which I have no way of checking.

Perhaps one reason editors and publishers in this country have "shown no disposition" to print horror stories either from China or Europe is that they remember too well the propaganda lessons of the World war. Personally, I think it a highly commendable caution. With so many vital things going on in the world today that may affect the whole future of America, it is no time to stir up a hornet's nest of hysteria.

* * *

B. T., Easton Pa.—You are asking for personal advice, but I refer you back to a recent column and give you official advice.

Don't come to Washington looking for a job, unless you have connections which practically assure you the position. It's a wild guess, but perhaps about 8,000 persons have been employed here in the last three months.

The District of Columbia employment center tells me that there are more than 87,000 job applications on file and that more than 12,000 of these have been made or renewed in the last month.

Civil service and employment bureau officials have gone on the air in recent weeks in an effort to stem the tide of job-hunters that has rolled in as a result of the national defense drive.

There is no doubt that there are going to be hundreds, maybe thousands, of new jobs here, but the competition is already keen.

The point is that maybe in your own community, certainly in your own state, the defense program is opening up job possibilities.

If you are a skilled laborer, the chances are you'll have no trouble finding work.

Even if you aren't, explore the possibilities in or near your home town before you descend on Washington without political connections or a civil-service rating.

G. H. M., Birmingham, Ala.—No, the third-term issue has never been given a test at the polls.

As close as the voters ever got to it was in 1912, when Theodore Roosevelt, having been elected once after serving out McKinley's unexpired term, ran on the Bull Moose ticket. If he had been elected, he would have been in the White House about 11½ years (although not consecutively).

Grant tried to get nominated in 1880 for a third term (again not consecutive). He failed after he had deadlocked the convention through more than 30 ballots.

Political historians insist that, other than Washington, Coolidge is the only president until Roosevelt who could have been nominated for a third term.

Many will say flatly that had Coolidge chosen to run in 1928, his election would have been assured. That, of course, can't be proved, but some Democratic commentators are using it as proof that, with the T. Roosevelt showing in 1912, there were at least two times when the Republican party didn't worry about the third term tradition.

Daily Bible Thought

The Lord hath cast the kingdom from thee this day, and hath given it to a neighbor of thine that is better than thou.—1st Samuel 15:28.

This Is Ohio

The value of dairy products to the Ohio farmer last year was $75,000,000—sixth largest for all the states.

For almost 100 years dairying has been one of the leading industries of Ohio. In the winter of 1851, the Ohio Dairymen's association was formed and from then on noticeable improvement in type and number of dairy cattle was seen.

At first, farmers preferred cattle that could be used for labor and beef, as well as milking. In 1834 the Ohio Importing company was organized and imported Shorthorns, Jerseys, Alderneys, Guernseys, Herefords, Holsteins, Angus, and Devons from England.

A Farmer's Diary

Contentment

—By CALVIN A. BYERS

I STOPPED at a modern country home, high on a hillside, to purchase early potatoes. Mine are the late variety, and I am not ready to dig them yet.

This home was a semi-bungalow, all modern, with furnace, electricity, bath and running water—the latter supplied by a spring farther up the slope. I knocked at the kitchen door, but found no one. I was turning to go away, when the farmer appeared from a door that opened into the cellar.

"You have a nice home up here," I said, "a modern house and a splendid barn, in good repair. How many acres do you farm?"

"Too many," he smiled. "There's 138, and some of it's pretty rough, but these hills raise darn good crops. See that cornfield up on that hill over there"—he pointed—"that's as good as any corn you'll see anywhere, and the soybeans are doin' just as well. Of course it may look harder to work hilly ground than bottom land, but I been brought up on hills, and woods and floods don't bother me none."

"And you make out pretty well financially?" I asked.

"We don't make much money—but we don't aim to get rich. A modest livin' and a little put by, once in a while, and I'm satisfied. I wouldn't advise any young fellow to start gettin' rich quick by farmin'—but then I wouldn't advise any fellow to try to get rich! And if we had to live in town and rent, 'twould take a pretty fine income to keep us goin' on the same scale we're living here. My wife and I figured up the other night—our house wouldn't rent for less than $40 a month in town. Then there'd be gas and coal and water bills to pay. We'd have to buy milk, vegetables, butter, meat, eggs, lard—fuel. All that we have right here—and we take out what we need, first, and sell the rest. I tell my family sometimes, we don't know how well off we are!"

"You aren't hungry—nor idle," I suggested.

"No—and that's something else. It must be a punishment for a strong man to be idle because he has no job. I've never been out of work since I was a boy, and my son hasn't either. We're only milkin' five cows, and keepin' 400 hens this year. But, at that, with the stock and the crops, we're fairly busy. We just live our own life, and enjoy what we have—and don't try to keep up with the Joneses."

Senate Action to Delay Draft Until 1941 Predicted

MALONEY BILL DUE FOR VOTE DURING WEEK

Provides Registration Now, Delays Conscription Until New Year.

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON —(AP)— The senate appropriations committee approved today a $5,008,169,277 appropriations bill providing funds for the beginning of construction on a "two-ocean" navy and for equipping an army of 1,200,000 men.

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON —(U P)— Sen. Lister Hill, D., Ala., re-opening senate debate on the military conscription bill, charged today that voluntary enlistments "place a premium on slackerism and a penalty on patriotism." Compulsory selective service, Hill argued, is "the only Democratic way" to build up the defense forces.

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON—Despite Wendell L. Willkie's endorsement of "some form of selective service," anti-conscripton forces were confident today that the senate would vote to defer a draft until the new year, instead of approving the Burke-Wadsworth bill proposal for immediate military training.

The confidence of the anti-conscription senators ran so high that the pressure was being brought to bear on Senator Maloney (D., Conn.) to make further modifications in his measure for postponement of conscription until 1941.

The Maloney proposal, which is expected to reach a vote this week, now provides for immediate registration of all men between 21 and 31. In this respect, it is like the Burke-Wadsworth bill. The measure, however, stipulates that the registered men shall not be called for service before Jan. 1, 1941, and then only if the army fails to obtain sufficient manpower by voluntary enlistments.

The pronouncements on selective service and the necessity for accelerated preparedness which Willkie made Saturday in accepting the Republican presidential nomination led some pro-conscription senators at first to predict rejection of the Maloney postponement proposal and quick passage of the Burke-Wadsworth immediate service legislation. To all appearances, however, the Maloney forces remained as strong as they were last week, when they were credited with a good chance for victory on a close vote.

In urging further modification of the Maloney proposal, those opposed to immediate conscriptions advocated that registration as well as the actual calling of men be delayed.

Registration postponement was only one of the ideas advanced.

Senator Wheeler (D., Mont.), one of the anti-conscription leaders, recommended that conscription be limited to inducting men into the national guard. He argued that the army could reach its stated quota of 385,000 men by voluntary enlistments in the next four or five months.

Senator Adams (D., Colo.), who is undecided on the conscription issue but says he favors the Maloney proposal, said that testimony before the senate appropriations subcommittee indicated that the army was gaining 23,000 recruits monthly by enlistment. He said he thought that the 385,600 quota easily could be attained in a few months.

The legislation authorizing the president to mobilize the national guard and reserves still requires senate concurrence in some minor house amendments. Action was expected in a few days.

In the background as the Burke-Wadsworth debate proceeded were the questions of transferring "over-age" destroyers to Great Britain and the negotiations for acquisition of bases on British possessions in the western hemisphere.

Informed legislators continued to insist that a destroyer-naval base deal was in the making, and that Mr. Roosevelt had delayed announcing it only because he had been accused of attempting to "black out" Willkie's acceptance speech Saturday.

NURSE MARRIES AT CRESTLINE

Miss Ruth Kindinger Becomes Bride of Mentor Man In Saturday Ceremony.

CRESTLINE—Miss Ruth Kindinger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs Albert C. Kindinger, of North Henry street, became the bride of Duane E. Phillips, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melville Phillips of Mentor, in a ceremony performed Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the parsonage of Calvary Reformed church. Rev. W. L. Margard read the single ring service.

The couple had as their attendants and only witnesses the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wildman of Shelby.

The couple left immediately after the ceremony for a short trip over the week-end and expect to leave August 23 for a more extended wedding trip to Ontario, Canada.

The bride is a graduate of Crestline high school and Fairview Park hospital School of Nursing. Following her graduation from the latter place she was employed there until last January when she located in Shelby as a nurse in Memorial hospital. She resigned the latter position in view of her approaching marriage.

The groom graduated from Mentor high school and is employed at the Cleveland Container company as head of the cost department. They will reside in Cleveland.

THREE ARRESTED

Turned Over to State Patrol For Auto Thefts.

BUCYRUS—Three colored men whose names and addresses police have been unable to ascertain, have been turned over to the Marion sub-station of the state highway patrol for further disposition, Police Chief Arthur Stuckert reports.

The men were captured here after they allegedly stole an automobile in Marion, wrecked it against the Scott McDonald home here, stole another car and then attempted to steal a third when they were arrested.

All of the men gave conflicting stories, police said, making it impossible to identify them. One of them is still in City hospital with a broken arm, the result of the McDonald accident. He may undergo an operation later this week.

CONTRACTS LET

GALION — Two contracts that were awarded Saturday following the opening of bids, Friday afternoon, for the equipment for the new city hospital are for the elevator to the Capital Elevator company of Columbus on the low bid of $4,235, and the sterilizing equipment contract to Scanlon Morris company of Madison, Wis., of the low bid of $1,572.65.

These two contracts had to be awarded immediately as they are being built into the new hospital now under construction. Other bids for equipment were also received Friday but no contracts awarded.

CONFERENCE

BUCYRUS—Three Evangelical pastors from the Bucyrus area will go to Akron Tuesday to attend the annual Ohio conference of the Evangelical church at Akron's Calvary Evangelical church.

Those who will go from here are Rev. C. D. Osborn of First church here, Rev. E. H. Lewis and Rev. N. M. Keck of nearby rural churches. The conference will be featured by a centennial celebration at which Dr. Daniel A. Poling and Bishop George E. Epp of Naperville will be speakers. Bishop Epp will preside.

MEMBERS OF GANG ROUNDED UP HERE RETURN---TO O. S. R. CELLS

Two Mansfield youths, members of robber gang rounded up here several weeks ago are coming back to Mansfield—to the Ohio State reformatory.

They are Norman McNeely, 19, 83 McPherson street, and John Smysick, 20, of 205 Coul street, both of whom pleaded guilty to charges of armed robbery before Common Pleas Judge John R. King in Columbus today. Both were sentenced to one to 15 year terms.

The pair, arrested with seven companions, all Mansfield youths, were accused of robbing a filling station attendant at Reynoldsburg of $77 last June 29.

Six members of the gang, which admitted to Mansfield detectives that they had robbed and burglarized at least half a dozen filling stations in central Ohio were turned over to Huron county authorities, charged with robbing a Wakeman filling station early in July.

All were indicted for robbery and sentenced three weeks ago to indeterminate terms in the reformatory.

They are Robert Bushey, 21, Shelby; Paul Fox, 21, Lily street; George McElroy, 19, of 84 Orchard street; John Snyder, 19, of 184½ North Main street and William and Clifford Walters, of 22 King street.

The ninth member, Glenn R. Hanlon, 21, of 15 Woodland avenue, is held in the county jail, facing charges of breaking and entering a Lincoln Heights filling station. He admitted the theft of $30 worth of spark plugs.

ASHLAND COLLEGE GRADUATE TAKES SCHOOL LIBRARY JOB

ASHLAND—A former Ashland college student, Miss Helen Shively, will return to the college this fall to take over the position of full time library assistant.

Miss Shively, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. U. J. Shively, Nappanee, Ind., graduated from Ashland college in 1939, where during her four years she had been active in the Girls' Gospel team, W. A. A., Y. W. C. A., and the Allen House council.

As a member of the student council and an officer in many organizations Miss Shively became a well known student on the hilltop campus.

Following her graduation Miss Shively attended the University of Illinois where she took library work, an extension of the work which she did as student assistant in the Ashland college library while she attended school here. As assistant in the college library Miss Shively will be in charge of the research work there.

COMMENCEMENT

ASHLAND—Friday, Aug. 23, will be the day of the annual summer commencement at Ashland college. Dr. R. R. Haun, dean of the college, will be the speaker at the morning exercises held in the chapel at 11:00.

The twelve students who will receive diplomas include Alma Jane Freese, Crestline; Elizabeth Gladden, Perrysville; Florence Hines, Ashland; Virginia Mickey, Greenwich; Olin Francis Moore, Harry E. Russell, Dorothy Scheidler, Paul P. Smith and Evan Waltz, all of Mansfield, Delbert Warren Smith, Marion; Celista Jane Stauffer, Ashland, and Velma Wimmer, Danville.

HURT IN WRINGER

Woman Injured In Home, Manages To Free Self.

Mrs. Edgar Neel, Park avenue west road, suffered severe wounds to her right hand and arm in a wringer at her home this morning. Numerous stitches and clamps were required to close the wound.

Mrs. Neel, whose husband was away at the time, and whose children were asleep, managed to free herself by tripping the wringer release with her other hand. She was treated at a doctor's office and returned to her home.

18 DRIVERS ARE CITED; NINE IN COURTS TODAY

Bellville Youth Loses Right to Drive for 60 Days After Arrest by Patrol.

Eighteen drivers, most of them cited by state highway patrolmen, were arrested over the week-end for traffic violatons in and near Mansfield. The offenses ranged from running through stop signs to unsafe driving.

Of the nine arraigned before court authorities, a 17-year-old Bellville youth lost his driving rights for 60 days. The cases of the other nine drivers were continued.

Clarence R. Oyster, 17, Bellville, lost his driving rights for 60 days and was fined $10 in municipal court today when he pleaded guilty to a charge of unsafe driving on route 13.

Arthur F. Baumberger, 24, R. D. 2, Mansfield, pleaded guilty to speeding on Newman street, and was fined $10 and costs.

Robert Leathers, R. D. 2, Mansfield, charged with unsafe driving, pleaded guilty and was fined $10 and costs.

Taken before Justice of the Peace Taylor this morning, James H. Kranick, 22, and Ferdinand F. Mauser, 25, both of Bucyrus, were fined $10 and costs each for speeding on U. S. route 30S.

William B. Rice, Columbus, charged with unsafe driving, was fined $10 and costs when arraigned before Justice of the Peace Wiles at Lexington.

Wilson Robinson, Detroit, was arrested for speeding on route 13 and fined $10 by Acting Mayor F. M. Black of Greenwich.

Two drivers were arraigned before Justice of the Peace R. R. Teeters at Ashland.

They were Louis Zlatkin, Akron, fined $10 and costs for careless and reckless driving, and Gene Fox, Ashland, fined $5 for driving with insufficient brakes.

Those cases to be heard later include four drivers charged with passing another vehicle on the right side.

They are Orlin Stephens and Paul McMullen, both of Huntington, W. Va.; Nelson Burbette, Marion, and Carl Gehlik, Mt. Vernon, arrested on U. S. route 42 south of Mansfield, when they passed a truck on a hill.

Robert Thorburg, Ashland, will be arraigned in municipal court tomorrow on a charge of speeding on U. S. route 42.

Richard Herick, 164 Glessner avenue, charged with speeding on route 13, is also cited to appear tomorrow.

The case of Lee Hearn, Galion, charged with speeding on Park avenue west was postponed indefinitely.

Edward Sargent, Shelby, charged with driving his automobile with insufficient lights is scheduled to appear in the mayor's court in Shelby tonight, and Charles F. Wachtell, R. D. 4, Ashland, will be arraigned before Justice of the Peace Teeters in Ashland tonight on a charge of failing to observe a stop sign.

REUNION HELD

Former Bedford County, Pa., Residents Have Outing.

SHELBY—Nearly two hundred persons, all former residents of Bedford county, Pa., were present Sunday at Seltzer park for the 17th annual reunion of former resident of the county now in Ohio.

The get-together was started in 1924 when a group gathered at a grove near Shelby for an outing. It was decided then to hold an annual reunion. Only a handful of people attended that first reunion, but since then several hundred former residents joined the outing.

Heading the reunion again this year was Mason Boor of near Shelby. Assisting him was the secretary, C. R. Knee. Both officers were re-elected.

Rev. J. R. Thomas of Hayesville, a former Bedford county, Pa., resident, was the speaker for the program Sunday following a picnic dinner. Music was furnished by the Mt. Zion high school band of Bucyrus. Contests were held during the afternoon. In charge of the entertainment was a committee composed of Cleo Taylor of Mansfield and George England of Shiloh.

Expects To Free Shooting Suspect After Questioning

Held in jail since 10:30 p. m. Saturday following an altercation in his place of business during which a bystander was shot in the leg, Lawrence Newsome, colored, of 555 Central avenue, proprietor of the Picket Fence night club, 211½ North Diamond street, was to be released today, Assistant County Prosecutor Harold T. Lutz said.

Lutz said he had about completed his investigation today and was satisfied that the gun went off accidentally while the proprietor was engaged in a scuffle with a couple of customers in his place of business.

Police were called to the club Saturday night after F. Nobie Davis, colored, 5 Lafayette street, was shot in the leg as he was entering the place. Officers said the bullet from a small automatic pistol which Newsome had attempted to grab from the cash register went off accidentally, the slug richocheting from the floor.

Davis was treated at a physician's office for a flesh wound in his left leg.

MISS BETTE ANDERSON, ROBERT ROHRER WED

Bride's Home Scene of Nuptial Service Read By Rev. David N. Roller, Early Yesterday Afternoon

IN A pretty ceremony at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Anderson, 629 Davis road, Miss Bette Jane Anderson became the bride of Robert Powell Rohrer of Springfield yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Mr. Rohrer is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Rohrer, former Mansfield residents who now live in Springfield.

Preceding the nuptial service, which was read by Rev. David N. Roller, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, Miss Beatrice Kochenderfer presided at the piano, playing "Because" by D'Hardelot and the "Wedding March" from "Lohengrin" by Wagner.

The bride was attired in a red-ingote ensemble of luggage tan and white print, and with it she wore moss green and luggage tan accessories. Two yellow carndanna orchids formed her shoulder corsage, and she was given in marriage by her father.

The former Miss Anderson's sisters, Mrs. E. L. Channell and Mrs. H. H. Heston, and Mrs. Donald E. Frampton were the attendants. Mrs. Channe wore a green printed frock with brown accessories, Mrs. Heston, a royal blue print dress with dubonnet accessories; and Mrs. Frampton, a dubonnet printed frock with navy blue accessories. All three of the attendants wore shoulder corsages of Talisman roses and delphinium.

Donald E. Frampton served as Mr. Rohrer's best man. Mrs. Rohrer was attired in a gray and lime green costume for the wedding, and Mrs. Anderson appeared in a navy blue dress with matching accessories.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held for 70 guests at the Susie Janis home on the Park avenue west road. Later in the day, Mr. and Mrs. Rohrer left for a motor trip to New York City, and from there they will go to their new home in Boston, Mass.

The bride is a graduate of Mansfield Senior high school, and she attended Wittenberg college, where she was a member of Alpha Delta Pi sorority. She has been affiliated with Zeta Rho chapter of Delta Theta Tau sorority in the city and was employed at the Lumbermens Mutual Insurance company. Mr. Rohrer also was graduated from Mansfield Senior high school. While attending Wabash college, he was a member of Phi Gamma Delta fraternity. He now is employed in Boston by the Champion company of Springfield.

Out-of-town guests at the reception included: Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Davidson and their children, Gloria and Harold, jr., Lake Cable, Canton; Mr. and Mrs. Jay Powell, Wooster; Mr. and Mrs. Willis Rohrer, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Carroll, Shelby; Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Anderson, Marion; Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Schofeild, Manila, P. I.

Simple Service Read Saturday For Young Pair

Simplicity marked the marriage Saturday at 3 o'clock of Miss Mary Jane Henry and Leonard F. Boebel. Dr. Paul H. Salcste performed the afternoon ceremony at the parsonage of St. John's Evangelical and Reformed church. A wedding dinner was served at the Cottage restaurant in Ashland.

Miss Henry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Henry, R. D. 2, was graduated from Weller township high school and Mansfield General hospital. She has been on general duty at the hospital.

For her marriage the bride selected a street length frock of navy with white accessories.

Mr. Boebel is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Boebel, Graham road. He was graduated from Lexington high school, and is affiliated with his father in business.

Mr. and Mrs. Boebel left Saturday evening for a Canadian motor trip. For traveling the bride wore a wine colored ensemble with white accessories. Upon their return to the city they will be at home at 156 Glessner avenue.

Nazarene Church Scene of Wedding

At 11:30 a. m. yesterday Miss Mary E. Bryan, 259 West Fifth street, daughter of Lewis Bryan, Ashland, became the bride of Carl R. Johnson, Mansfield, at the Church of the Nazarene, with Rev. Lena Brandenburg officiating. Mrs. Catherine Mosier presided at the organ, and Mrs. Pearl Bryan sang "I Love You Truly" and "Rock of Ages."

The bride was attired in a white satin dress with a long veil which descended into a full train. She carried a bouquet of mixed roses.

She was attended by her sister, Mrs. Walter Powell, who was attired in a powder blue dress and carried roses also. Mr. Powell was best man.

Later the couple left for a motor trip to Yellowstone National park. They will be at home Sept. 1 in Lincoln Heights.

Peanut Butter Rolls.

Peanut butter rolls give zest to lunch boxes. Make up bread dough in the usual way. Roll it out until very thin. Spread with peanut butter, thinned with a little cream. Roll the dough in pin wheel fashion and cut off 1½-inch slices. Let them rise in a greased shallow pan until doubled in size. Bake as any roll. These may be served warm or cold. For extra crunch, mix a few chopped roasted peanuts with the peanut butter.

Blueberry Waffles.

Blueberry jam or preserves make a grand topper for hot waffles or pancakes. For a fancy touch stack three waffles with plenty of jam and butter for fillers. Serve it in pie pieces.

Informally Speaking...

Aug. 19, 1940.

Lucy, dear:

HERE we are in the middle of August—which isn't behaving like August at all. With today as cool as one in the fall, and as many weddings as were ever boasted of in June, the only thing that's really in keeping with the month is that it's still the traditional vacation time, and more folk than ever have gone away until the first of September.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Stutz, with their children, Betty and Harry Earl, also have gone to New York City for two weeks, while Mr. and Mrs. William Terry have been spending the week-end in Niagara Falls.

* * * * *

Headed in just the opposite direction are several more Mansfielders. . . . Mr. and Mrs. Victor Ohly are touring the west—with plans to stop in Yellowstone National park, the Grand Canyon and other scenic spots. . . . Mrs. R. A. Fox and Becky Moore are accompanying them on the sojourn. . . . Also driving west are Mr. and Mrs. K. L. Woodman, their children, George and Kay, and Mr. Woodman's mother, Mrs. George Woodman of Toledo. . . . They've gone to Morril, Neb., for a ten-days' stay with Mr. Woodman's grandmother and her son.

* * * * *

Vacation trips in the great out-doors also seem to be appealing to many folks. . . . Mr. and Mrs. James Henderson and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Houserman left Saturday for Long Lake, Mich., where they will spend a week, while Mr. and Mrs. John Schuttera of this city and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schuttera of Cleveland have gone to Wisconsin for two weeks.

* * * * *

THE refreshing breezes of Lake Erie have beckoned any number of young Mansfield women—with Mittiwanga beach sharing most of the honors this week. . . . Mary Garver, Emily Cox, Mary Lou Hout, Florence Nail, Mary Strater, Mrs. William Mosey, Mrs. Robert Zeller, Mrs. Norman E. Leonard, Mrs. John Courtney have taken a cottage at that resort. . . . But then they're not the only ones, Lucy. . . . Betty Critchfield, Helen Underwood, Doris Kechert, Marion Burkhart, Margaret Brickley, Betty Underwood, Barbara Lemley and La Donna Dillon also have gone to Mittiwanga — chaperoned by Mrs. Ralph Critchfield and Mrs. Ray Underwood.

* * * * *

And speaking of Lake Erie, Eileen Logan and Eleanor Clingan are leaving on a boat trip from Cleveland at 9:30 o'clock tonight. . . . The Great Lakes cruise will take them to Buffalo and Niagara Falls, N. Y., Crystal Beach, Can., Detroit, Mich., then through the Sault Locks to Mackinac island and finally to Chicago, Ill., and back to Cleveland. . . . The girls will be gone for seven days, and then they're going to spend the other week of their vacation at Mittiwanga too.

* * * * *

NOW to digress from vacations a bit, Lucy, I must tell you about the successes of some of Helen Loomis Linham's poems. . . . One entitled "Songs", recently was set to music by Wallace Herrewig of Long Beach, Cal., and it is being used in churches throughout that state. . . . Then three from her new book, "I Hear Earth Sing" have been reprinted in other publications. . . . "Hunger" appears in a late issue of "Dreamshop," an international poetry magazine. "Not One" has been printed in Lutheran Women's Work, a national magazine for women of the Lutheran church, and "Trees" will appear in the next issue of "Blue Moon," another international poetry magazine.

* * * * *

Guess that's all the news for today, Lucy. . . . I'll write again next week, and in the meantime, let me hear from you.

Lovingly,

Marianne

LET IT THICKEN

If the pieces of fruits in your jams and butters keep coming to the top of the jars, try this: When the jam is done, let it cool in the utensil in which it was cooked. This thickens it. Then pour the jam into the jars or glasses and seal.

After Cooking Fish.

Reach for crushed newspaper instead of a dish cloth when cleaning out a frying pan in which fish has been cooked. Discard the paper. Scald out the pan with boiling water to remove the odor and then wash in very hot sudsy water. Rinse in boiling water. Wipe dry. The pan is then ready for the next cooking.

Home Ceremony Performed By Cousin of Bride

Palms, ferns and garden flowers formed an improvised altar in front of the mantel which was decorated with tapers Saturday at 4 p. m. when Miss Sarah G. Amsbaugh was married at her sister's home, 151 Harker street. She became the bride of Warren W. Baker, Chicago, Ill., son of Mr. and Mrs. Wade Baker, Park avenue west road. Rev. George M. Schrack, Perrysville, cousin of the bride, officiated.

Miss Amsbaugh, who has been making her home here with her sister, Mrs. V. C. Hageman, was attired in a white celenease crepe dress and white accessories. She carried a bouquet of dark red roses. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Amsbaugh, Fredericktown, and attended the high school there. She has been employed here at the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing company.

The couple was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Tucker. Mr. and Mrs. Baker left Sunday morning for Chicago where they will make their home. He is employed there at the Inland Rubber company.

Disclose Marriage Of Mid-August To Friends

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Parker, 466 West Sixth street, have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Elaine Hellinger, to Fred Jones, grandson of Mrs. Will Jones, Wooster road. The wedding was solemnized in Newport, Ky., on Aug. 14, when the bride was attired in a soldier blue suit with black accessories.

Mrs. Jones is a graduate of Mansfield Senior high school, and Mr. Jones was graduated from Madison high school. He is employed as a salesman for the Baldreich Potatoe Chip company, and he and his bride will live with his grandmother on the Wooster road.

Engagement Told At Sunday Night Party

Thirty friends of Miss Betty Jane Smith learned of her approaching marriage to Robert Hostetler, when her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Damon Smith, entertained with an announcement party yesterday evening at their home on Westview boulevard.

The wedding will be an event of Aug. 25 at 3:30 o'clock before the altar of the First Methodist church. Mr. Hostetler is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hostetler, 123 Blanche street. Games were the diversion last evening, and the announcements were concealed in the napkins when refreshments were served from a table decorated with pink and white appointments.

Mansfield Couple Married In Kentucky

Miss Evelyn Kennedy, daughter of Mr and Mrs. Virgil Kennedy, West Temple court, chose a light blue dress with white accessories and a white bolero and a corsage of gardenias for her marriage Saturday to Paul Jerger, jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jerger, sr., 437 Grace street.

The ceremony was read at Newport, Ky. The bridegroom is employed at the Empire Steel and Tin Plate company. They are now at home with the bridegroom's parents.

MISS GONGWER BRIDE OF HAROLD F. WORNER

Mid-Afternoon Ceremony Performed Sunday At Central Methodist Church By Rev. R. L. Foulke, Pair On Trip.

BANKED palms and ferns and two beauty baskets of white gladioli flanked by two seven branch candelabra decorated the altar of the Central Methodist church at 2:30 p. m. yesterday when Miss Evelyn Gongwer and Harold F. Worner exchanged their nuptial vows. The pews of the church were marked off with white ribbon streamers.

Miss Gongwer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tracy Gongwer, 521 Sloane avenue, was attired in a floor length white satin gown made with a fitted bodice and short puffed sleeves. A sweetheart neckline, and a full gathered skirt completed the gown which was topped by a finger tip length veil made with a cap of braided illusion. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses, gardenias and larkspur.

The father of the bride gave her in marriage, while Rev. R. L. Foulke, pastor, officiated.

The organ music by Miss Elizabeth Burneson included "Wedding Prelude" by Nevin, "Romance" by Suendsen, "Wedding Intermezzo" by Nevin, "Salute D'Amour" by Elgar, "Bridal Chorus" by Wagner and "Wedding March" by Mendelssohn. Miss Dorothy Hill, Cincinnati, sang "Because" and "O, Promise Me."

Miss Marjorie Gongwer, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Her gown was of rose taffeta made similarly to the bride's. Mrs. Harry Schmahl was bridesmaid, and Mary Ann Clever, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. Mrs. Schmahl and the flower girl were attired in aqua gowns made like the bride's. Each attendant carried a semi-colonial bouquet of flowers in pastel shades tied with contrasting colored ribbons. The flower girl carried a basket of garden blooms. Ralph Mathews was best man, and Harold Mumford and Henry Schmahl served as ushers.

The mother of the bride, Mrs. Gongwer, attended the wedding attired in a navy and white sheer costume with white accessories and corsage of gardenias. Mrs. A. H. Worner, mother of the bridegroom, was attired in a powder blue and white suit with white accessories and a gardenia corsage.

Immediately following the wedding 30 guests were entertained at a buffet party at the bride's home. Candles and white flowers in addition to the wedding cake decorated the table. Mr. and Mrs. Worner will reside temporarily at the bride's parent's home.

The former Miss Gongwer wore a two-piece navy blue sheer suit with navy and white accessories for her wedding trip. She is a graduate of Mansfield Senior high school and the Commercial Institute. She has been employed at the clerk of court's office.

Mr. Worner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Worner, 186 South Franklin avenue, was also graduated from Mansfield Senior high school, and is employed at the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing company.

Out-of-town guests included Robert Driver, Dayton, Miss Hill, Cincinnati, and Mr. and Mrs. Reginal Erwin, Akron.

Massage Good for Arms

By MME. QUI VIVE

This is the season of the year when arms should sit in at the beauty feast. Feminine fins take a lot of punishment during the summer season. They are burnt by the sun, frisked over by wind, subjected to atmospheric dust. By all beauty rights they should be soft, fair, velvety of surface. A pair of pretty arms is a grand asset. A dimple in an elbow has a definite sentimental appeal.

Perhaps you have picked up some yallery polka dots at the beaches. Evidences of a health-giving outdoor life, but you would be just as happy if you didn't have them. Freckles can be weakened. We won't say that horrid dark ones will scuttle away in a hurry under cosmetic treatment; but light ones can be subdued. We're going to tell you how to do it.

In nearly all large beauty shops, there is a department for hand and arm massage. But only the wildest money flingers patronize it because the average woman is out for decorative effects rather than sound, substantial beauty treatments. Hair, complexion and finger nails, dig into the beauty budget. But arm treatments can be given at home. One a week will do wonders.

* * *

Trot-trot to the drug store, get a bottle of cocoanut oil and a few ounces of almond meal. Drop into the 5 and 10 and buy yourself a large tin salt shaker to hold the meal. Begin with a rousing old scrubbing with hot water, soap and a heavy bath brush. If you were sunburned early in the season you've probably got a collection of dead skin scales that should come off. Give attention to the elbows. Arm hinges are more useful than beautiful. The skin is coarse there, inclined to be grey. If you've had more birthdays than you care to divulge there will be heavy wrinkles.

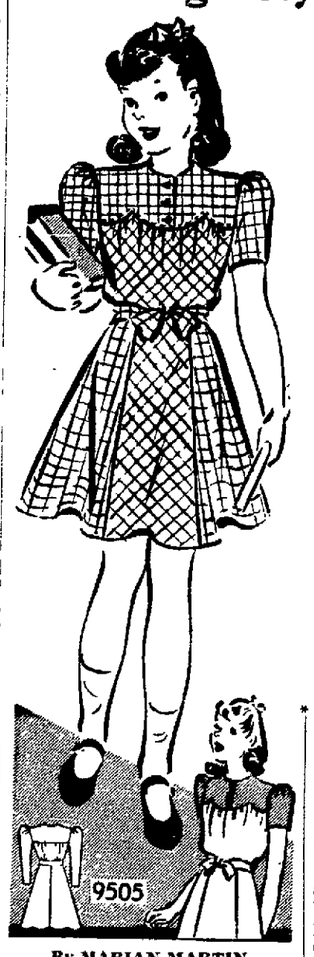
Rinse with warm water to get the flesh in a glow, dry thoroughly with a coarse towel. The best one for this purpose is a turkish towel of unbleached linen.

* * *

Dip your fingers in the cocoanut oil, massage from finger tips to shoulder. Rub it in with the thumb. Smooth with flattened fingers. Form a bracelet of one hand and swing it round and round the wrist and lower arm. Work in as much oil as you can. Be lavish with it. Force it into the cuticle around the finger nails.

Sprinkle on the meal so it will form a paste with the oil. That's the time to SOS for help. Get somebody to wring large thick towels out of steaming hot water and bind them around your arms. Repeat half a dozen times. Remove the pack with the moist towel, dry, pat in borated talcum.

High Style Fashions, Fancy Work



By MARIAN MARTIN

Booked ahead for school success is this frock for juniors. Wouldn't Pattern 9505 by Marian Martin be smart in bright cotton, in spun rayon or in a checked or plaid wool? There is a simple, buttoned neckline, and wellcut yokes, forming spirited scallops in front. That bloused bodice is wonderful for "growing-ups"—it softens and conceals any youthful awkwardness. The brief skirt flares above suntanned knees, with a panel straight down the front. See how both the bodice and panel are cut on a bias for striking effectiveness. Make the simple sleeves in either long or short length. You might use contrast for both the yokes and sleeves—so gay!

Pattern 9505 may be ordered only in girls' sizes 6, 8, 10, 12, and 14. Size 10 requires 2⅝ yards 35 inch fabric.

Send Fifteen Cents in coins for this Marian Martin pattern. Be sure to write plainly your Size, Name, Address and Style Number.

Marriage Meddlers

By ADELE GARRISON

Continuation of "Married Comrades"

"He was very matter of fact and decided in his reply," Miss Whitlock told me, slowly, and patently choosing her words with care.

"He said that he was terribly busy, and could not possibly spare the time for an interview."

"Oh!" I exclaimed again. "How blunt—how almost cruel!"

"Suppose we say how like any annoyed man," she smiled, and I put another query.

"Did he make that final?" I asked.

"Not exactly," she replied. "He explained that she was hysterical and temperamental, and that an interview would probably excite her. He asked me to tell her he was too busy to come to see her for a day or two, but would visit her later."

There was a troubled look in her eyes which made me say falteringly:

"Do you think that refusal had anything to do with what you fear about her?"

"I have had to watch her every minute since," she answered simply. "I did not close my eyes last night."

"You'll close them tonight," I said. "I shall watch her myself, and I shall make an opportunity to see her before then, and see if I can fathom her trouble. For the next hour I shall be too busy to help you, but after that I can relieve you."

"That is good of you," she said gratefully.

Knows the Symptoms.

"Good!" I replied scornfully. "Decent, you mean. I do wish I could send you to sleep right away, but as I said, I can't get away for an hour. Now, how about this plan? You said she was safe under this opiate for an hour. If I promise to waken you in forty-five minutes, can't you sleep that long?"

"Indeed I can, and glad of the chance," she returned, and I started back with her to Edith's door.

"I'll talk with you about this later," I said. "Only, do tell me how you know that she is contemplating suicide. Has she said so?"

"No, indeed," she answered. "But—I spent a year of my nursing in a psychopathic ward. I know most of the symptoms."

"Is there anything more you wish to tell me before you lie down?" I asked.

Fear For Dicky.

She did not answer for a long second, then she said carefully: "Only that she appears to have something on her mind which she wishes to reveal—or—confess—" she returned. "That, I believe, is why she wished to see your husband. I wish it were possible—"

Her voice broke off, and I filled in the gap.

"He will see her at the very first opportunity," I said with decision. "I promise you that."

"That may be the one thing needed to turn the scale," she said, and spoke no more until we had reached the door.

"You are sure you will call me within three-quarters of an hour?" she said insistently.

"I promise that faithfully," I reiterated, and turned away, obsessed by the conviction that Edith's only reason for asking to see Dicky was the wish to see his face once more before she should go out into the eternal darkness.

A terrifying thought halted my steps, and spun me around again, facing the closed door of my room in which Edith lay. Suppose her crazed brain prompted her to try to take Dicky with her! Suppose she had some cunningly concealed weapon with which she could strike at him!

HOROSCOPE

For Tuesday, August 20

According to the lunar and mutual configurations there should be a period of opportunity for much productive work in new lines, in which fresh ways of doing things or radical departures from old methods and ideas may take a sudden leap toward profitable and secure objectives. It is a time for tackling progressive projects with audacity and precision, even by spectacular promotional schemes However, there is need of definite discretion and vigilance as there are signs of pitfalls and snares. Sign papers with care. In the personal or affectional life there are intriguing experiences.

If It Is Your Birthday

Those whose birthday it is are to have a year of opportunity to put into execution some very progressive if not revolutionary ideas. Innovations, breaking away from effete and outworn systems or methods are in line to attract public attention, with sufficient promotional publicity. But be alert to fraud, trickery and subtle undermining, being particularly careful with papers. In the private life there are also possibilities of intrigue or secret adventures, probably romantic. Be wise.

A child born on this day should be inventive, progressive, creative beyond the usual grooves. It may have a happy talent for writing romantic literature. It needs guidance as to protection against fraud or imposition.

FOR SANDWICHES

Here is a grand sandwich filling: Mix together ⅔ cup salmon, ½ cup white cream cheese, ¼ cup finely-minced celery, 1 teaspoon each of chopped parsley, pimentos and sweet pickles, ⅛ teaspoon salt and 3 tablespoons salad dressing or mayonnaise. Chill and use as filling for approximately 18 sandwiches.

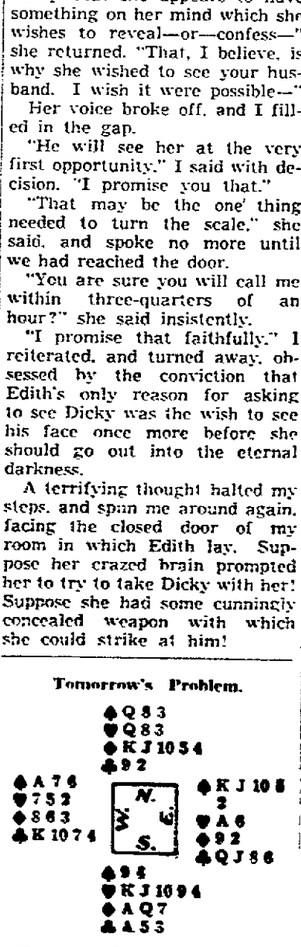
KEEPING PEARS WHITE

To prevent pears from discoloring when you're putting up quite a few at one time, make up this solution: Put 2 tablespoons each of salt and vinegar in a gallon (16 cups) of cold water. Drop the pears into this mixture as soon as they are peeled. The pears will not be flavored by the salt or vinegar.

IRONING LACE

Lace tablecloths will hang evenly if ironed with the grain of the material and if care is taken to match the edges before ironing. Also be careful not to pull the lace out of shape by extra heavy pressing.

Tomorrow's Problem.



(Dealer: South. North-South vulnerable.)

If East had bid spades, what should West lead to the first and second tricks in an effort to defeat South's 4-Heart contract?

We Never Forget Lessons Once Learned

By GARRY CLEVELAND MYERS, Ph.D.

Sometimes we suppose we have forgot everything we ever learned at school. But we haven't. Though some of it cannot be recalled at the moment, some can; after a little practice, all may be. We don't forget nearly so much as we think we do.

Perhaps we never entirely forget anything we once memorized. Oh, yes, at the moment we try to recall it we may fail, but at some later, more favorable time, it may flash into the mind. Often this happens at the time we need it least. Nevertheless, the very fact that it came back at all is proof that it was not entirely forgotten.

How Much We Remembered.

Some years ago Mrs. Myers and I published in the American Journal of Phychology a research, "Reconstructive Recall." Each of us wrote down at regular intervals, over a period of several months, all that could be recalled of selections memorized years before but partially or almost entirely forgot in the meanwhile.

During the months over which we tried to dig out of our memories what seemed to have been forgotten, we did not see the original selections nor have any help. All we reconstructed was from our own heads. Through this long, persistent effort at recall we were able to reconstruct from about twenty to eighty per cent of what at first appeared to have been wholly forgotten. We have no doubt that if we had had the persistence to continue at this task over several more months or years, practically all of the selections would have been recalled.

Practice Frequently.

Of course, for our recalls to be most useful we must be able to make them when we want them. In order to do this we need to keep our memories alive by frequent practice and recalls.

The permanence of skills is more apparent. Only a few weeks ago I discovered that some of my skills at handling hay, learned years ago, still persisted.

The next-farm neighbor to where the Myers family spend most of their summers was almost killed by the front feet of a vicious horse, so my youngest son and I volunteered to make hay for him. I was proud of the skill with which I could pitch hay.

Applied to such skills in arithmetic, spelling and typing, the quality of skill one has at any age depends not so much on the quantity of practice as the quality of it, the degree of accuracy in the early steps of getting this skill. Such school skills as the child will want to use all his life are most useful when learned with precision. This is why I so often urge that the child learn the simple addition and subtraction facts by heart, and without error, early; and that those who still have trouble with these basic items in arithmetic be encouraged to master them at once. The task is easy, if intelligently attacked.

In case you wish to have a copy of the 100 addition facts and the 100 subtraction facts for your child to memorize this summer, write me, at 235 East 45th street, New York City, enclosing a self-addressed envelope with a three-cent stamp on it. Whether your child is in the ninth, fifth or second grade, he may still need to learn these foundation items in arithmetic, if he ever is to succeed in this subject. A good way for the child to learn them is to attack only four or five of them a day, copying these from the sheet and learning them as mechanically as if he were learning to spell.

Solving Parent Problems.

Q. Suppose a child, at the age of eight, twelve, or fifteen threw a book across the floor in rage. What should you do?

A. Bite your tongue or do anything else to keep silent and appear serene. Under no condition should you command the child to pick up the book—if you wish to get best results. Several hours later when there seems to be no wall between you and the child you might say to him in a gentle way, that he probably would like to manage himself better next time he gets awfully mad, seeing that he wants to have many friends. Then if you have been so persuasive as to cause him to ask you how he might effect improvement, you have scored a great victory; so has he.

Q. You see crayon marks on the wall and suppose your two-year-old lot made them. Would you ask the child if he did it

A. I hope I would not so tempt him to lie. I should spend considerable time and patience at helping him enjoy only the correct use of the crayons. I should not leave the child alone with the crayons until he had learned to use them properly.

BARCLAY ON BRIDGE

"The Authority on Authorities"

THE "HOLD-UP PLAY"

LETTING the defenders win in their suit one or more tricks which you are able to win yourself, so that you may be able to win later ones, is called the "hold-up." Its purpose is to protect you from the danger of their running the suit.

Fundamental principles underlying it are illustrated in the situations below, presuming that no suits have been bid by the defenders, the spade 6 led by West and the numbered hands being different dummies opposite South, who is striving for 3-No Trumps.

With No. 1 as dummy, declarer may be beaten if he wins the first or second spade trick, then finesses. If he loses the club finesse, West can run his spades; if he loses the heart finesse, East may have a spade left to lead to West's established suit. The safe play is to let the defenders win two spade tricks, take the third, then finesse hearts. Even if the finesse loses, game is sure, as either East will be out of spades or West will have only a four-card suit.

1. ♠7 4 ♥A Q J 5 ♦A Q 5 ♣8 5 4 3
2. ♠K 7 3 ♥A K Q 6 5 ♦8 5 2 ♣5 2
3. ♥K 7 4 ♠K Q J ♦A J 10 8 2 ♣7 4
4. ♠7 4 3 2 ♥A 6 5 3 ♦A Q 4 ♣10 9

South's Hand
♠A 8 5 ♥10 9 4 ♦K 9 ♣A K J 8 2

With No. 2 as dummy, East is the hand to keep out of the lead. If he should win, he can lead through the heart K. Play low on the spade lead from dummy, and whatever East plays, South must beat it, go to the dummy with a heart and finesse clubs. Losing that finesse to West can't hurt vitally. If they don't break, try for the heart break. If West had led an honor, however, South should hold up once, to prevent East from winning a later spade trick.

With No. 3 as dummy, if you win the first spade, then lose a diamond finesse, East can lead spades again, West overtaking and repeating to knock your last stopper out, and then, if you lose a trick to West with the heart A or club Q, the spades can be run. But, if you let the first trick go and win the second spade, then lead hearts to force the A, West could not have any re-entry after you finesse diamonds to East. If the heart A is held up on the first trick, don't try a second round, but play for your sure game.

With No. 4 as dummy, there is no point to the hold-up if West has led a fourth-best, as you see the lower ones and know he has only four. So go right in with your A and lead a small club, deliberately giving up a trick to make game sure. If you try to enter dummy for a club finesse, you take grave chances of not getting your nine tricks.

Develop Personality, Not Glamour

Is the word "glamour" becoming frayed, threadbare, and out around the edges? Words, like old coins, after a while begin to lose weight. It was so with the word "genteel." In the early days of Queen Victoria, people would have fought, bled and died rather than not be considered "genteel."

But now the dictionary has gone back on that Victorian mirror of refinement, and gives as a secondary meaning: "No longer used by good authors, except in a sarcastic or humorous sense."

Doubtless "glamour" will soon be used only in a humorous or sarcastic sense—we're so utterly sick of hearing it applied to everything."

The word was the inspiration of a bright publicity agent engaged in whoop it up for some publicity girl about to make her debut. The same method has been tried when the aspirant has Hollywood in mind. The prescriptions are almost identical.

What will be the next word to denote the quality that from time immemorial has made men bow down and worship women? We've had "It" and "Oomph" and worked almost as hard as "glamour" is the indispensable word "personality," which, like Tennyson's Brook, promise to go on forever.

No other word in the language defines the difference between two people as well as "personality." It makes you realize the difference between a girl who is beautiful but dumb and one who may be homely but keeps you on your toes through interest.

The charmers of history and tradition haven't always been beautiful. Mary Stuart, according to the portraits of her which have survived, wasn't even pretty. Yet men not only lost their heads over her, figuratively speaking, but went to the block in her interests and had them chopped off by the executioner.

Lady Hamilton wasn't the lovely creatured Romney portrayed. She became fat and ungainly, but Lord Nelson, a troop of willing slaves and even her own husband were all mad about her. She began life as a nursemaid. Kathie Schratt, the Egeria of the Emperor Franz Joseph of Austria, was not beautiful. There are scores of others whose portraits have come down to us to make us wonder how on earth they go away with it.

Personality is an undefinable charm. Perhaps if it could be defined, we would not fall for its magic. It's the something that keeps us guessing that does the trick; the something you try to explain to yourself even while getting caught in its snare.

While the appeal of personality is impossbile to define, it's not hard to check off qualities that repel. The woman with a high-pitched, rasping voice, or the whine that comes through her nose, the long-winded person who never leaves a detail out of a story, the ingroomed person who sends your thoughts scurrying to soap, flesh brushes, toilet water, hair brushes and the like. The woman who wants to tell you all about herself, and how she caught her last cold. No, you don't have to puzzle over the personality of these people; you just avoid them.

When Cooking Cabbage.

Broccoli, onions and cabbage give off an unpleasant odor while cooking. To prevent this, cook the vegetables uncovered and lay two pieces of bread on the water.

LUCKY FOR LOVE + + + + + +

CHAPTER XXI

The taxi drew up before a tall building with stone balustrades just off Fifth avenue. Inside luxury was so restrained it was almost severe. The elevator and rich dark woods and deep chairs that invited. A pungency of fine tobacco was in the air. She judged there must be hundreds of books in comfortable disarray lining the walls.

"May I present Dr. Lentz," Bruce Gordon introduced a spare little man with thick pince nez astride his nose. "Miss Marsh, Dr. Lentz. How's the patient?"

"Tsck, tsck, tsck," the doctor clucked. "Insists on getting up and going about. Headstrong young pup. Says he has work to do. Humm—who hasn't? I've threatened him. I've promised to give him a bump on the other side of his head if he doesn't settle down and obey orders."

Bruce Gordon laughed heartily. "The doctor believes in strong medicine," he explained to Marilyn. "I know. He palms his concoctions off on me whenever he gets a chance. He's been doing it since I was cradle-high and too weak to fight back."

In a man's room that matched the dignity and comfort of the study, Al Martino was at ease in a great cushioned chair with a hassock before it, which allowed him to stretch out practically at full length. He was wearing a wine-colored dressing gown and brown Morocco slippers.

"Hi, Duchess," he called, as Marilyn stepped into the room. "Welcome to our humble six-room bachelor quarters. How do you like the haberdashery? He fingered the lapels of the dressing gown, wiggled his toes in the Morocco slippers. "Pretty smooth, eh? Compliments of Mr. Bruce Gordon who wears 'em when I'm not around. Say, Little One, you're looking right chi-chi yourself. Where'd you find the cute headpiece?"

"Al," tears were in Marilyn's eyes, "You're all right? You're not in—in pain?"

"Me in pain!" Al scouted the idea. "Listen, Duchess, I'm reposing on a bed of roses. I've always wondered how the upper half live. Now I know. Gordon's a right guy. He treats me like his college pal, not a lug who got mowed down in a night club."

"But Al, you look so pale. Are you sure—"

"Sure I'm sure. I'm always pale up at this time of the year. Remind me to tell you the name of the texture cream I use. Gordon tells me he's staking you to dinner. As I said, he's a right guy—too right maybe. Run along now and take your truffles. Have a truffle or two on me. And stop worrying about Blondie. I'll have some news for you about the late Queen of Beauty tomorrow."

* * *

Marilyn did not remember much of that first dinner with Bruce Gordon except it was of such things as dreams are made of, and that this was a dream come true. The scene was one of those small but beautifully appointed restaurants off Park Avenue, specializing in choice food and string music. The cuisine was French. Marilyn's first bout with the culinary art that has made France famous the world over. A light wine, refreshing and fragrant, was served but she took only a few sips, distrusting even its fragrance after what had befallen her sister Clara who seemed to have fallen completely beneath its spell. The music was muted, tender, designed to touch the heart and the imagination.

They lingered at the table until the late supper guests began to arrive from theaters and concert, unconscious of time, of everything except the small white island of napery between them flooded by the glow from a rose-shaded candle.

Marilyn awoke to the realization that the tables were filling again, that she had, quite involuntarily, told Bruce Gordon the entire story of how Lady Luck had come to the house of Marsh in Millville, first with the title of Queen of Beauty for Clara, then with the Clarco award for herself. Eloquently but without benefit of camouflage, she had drawn for this man who had the gift of understanding, of appreciation, the picture of the shabby gray house in its brave new coat of white paint, of Mums and Dad, of young brother Bill. It was a simple picture simply sketched, filled in with colors of love, of longing, of regret.

"Mercy," Marilyn said, appalled by her own lack of restraint, "we must have been here for hours."

Bruce Gordon smiled, that slow smile that made her heart act so queerly. He said, 'I don't think so. We've been here a few minutes. Would you like to go on, dance perhaps, or have a bite of supper?"

"The way I gabbled, I've probably worn you down to a nub," Marilyn said. 'I've practically told you the story of my life—such a drab unimportant story too."

"A very human story. A vital story, to me. You're living it bravely. Go on living it that way."

"I don't feel brave," Marilyn confessed. "I feel sort of frightened, and helpless."

"What? So soon? Why your story has only begun. Remember, it will be no better, no worse, than you write it."

"I know. 'The Moving Finger writes; and having writ, moves on—' Which reminds me that I'd better be moving toward a stretch of sleep if I'm to do more than take up space in the Clarco company offices. I've been a total loss ever since Mr. Dawson employed me. I'm afraid Miss Cook thinks so too."

"Cookie's a good sort," Bruce Gordon said. "A martinet maybe, but that's her training, her temperament. Underneath she's a hundred per cent fair, and right. Sure you wouldn't like to barge about a while longer? We haven't sampled each other's dancing yet, you know."

"My loss, I'm sure. But I really must be turning in. It's been such a perfect evening—thanks—for everything."

At her hotel Bruce Gordon paused only long enough to hold Marilyn's hand with the lingering pressure that was infinitely more thrilling than words or look could be.

"Marilyn," he asked, his voice vibrant with appeal, "your story—would you—will you write me into it? Try me for a few chapters. You can drop me out if you find I don't fit."

* * *

The next day in the Clarco offices was uneventful. Again Marilyn felt she was being scrutinized from time to time by Edna Cook from her vantage point of authority. She did not see Bruce. She found herself repeating the name in her mind—Bruce, Bruce, Bruce, such a dear name. She found, too, that the approach of an office boy bearing one of the inevitable memos caused her to suspend breathing until he had passed. Censure from Miss Cook? A message from Bruce? None of them stopped at her desk. Lull in the storm.

Al Martino was pacing the lobby when Marilyn reached her hotel.

"Welcome home, Duchess," he said, whisking Marilyn onto the terrace and depositing her at a table. "Personally, I escaped from my mink-lined castle for the nonce and galloped here on my snow-white steed to give you a nip 'o news. Don't look so disapproving. I'm oke. The doc says so. What I want to relay to you is that Blondie, the swiftly bulging Beauty Queen, is opening at the Blue Parrot tonight. She's planning to get out there and knock the populace prostrate. I had the news from one of the Metropole's first-line scouts. She's prancing into the spotlight as Blondie Fewclothes, the new hick hope for international beauty champion. Can you tie it? Herman the Hess must have paid plenty for that spot."

Marilyn said, trying to compose herself, and failing, "Al please tell me what you're talking about. I understand only every sixth word."

"S'cuse, Big Eyes. I was telling you that sister Clara appears in the floor show of the Blue Parrot tonight. She waves in and waves out again with a wisp or two of chiffon where they'll do the most good. It's her curves she's showing. Anyhow, she won't go short on curves."

"Al!" terrified, "I must stop her!"

"You and how many other armies?" Al Martino urged Marilyn back into her chair. "Take it easy, Little Sister. The only way you can cure that dame is to let her knock herself out."

* * *

Marilyn awakened to the insistent clamor of an alarm clock.

She sat up in bed, trying valiantly to escape from sleep.

"Oh-h," Kathleen Garvan in the twin bed alongside, groaned. "Strangle that beast, pple-a-s-e." She dug her head into the pillow.

"No use," Marilyn said, swinging her bare feet over the side of her bed. "In two minutes it will start yowling all over again."

"Ir it does I'll take steps," Kathleen muttered. "Toss it a bone. It's driving me crazy."

"Not half as crazy as you'll be if you wake up an hour from now and find you're late for the office. Might as well rise and shine, Kathie. I'll start the coffee. Sugar buns and real cream for breakfast. Get going or I'll wolf them all myself."

"Oh -darn!" Kathleen struggled out of the covers. "Who ever thought up alarm clocks, anyhow? Some day I'll find the pest and strangle him with my bare hands. Lynn, I want to get back into bed and tell Mimi the maid to bring me my breakfast on a large silver tray."

"Oh yes? While you're ordering, Kathie, tell Mimi to bring me a wreath of moonbeams. I need a tiara." Marilyn and Kathleen were sharing a two-room and kitchenette apartment in East Tenth street. "Bring your alpine sticks," Kathleen had told their friends. We're four flights up, and you have to do your own climbing."
